Shapeshift Sherwin Bitsui:

Shapeshift Sherwin Bitsui, 2022-05-03 Fourteen ninety something something happened and no one can pick it out of the lineup In words drawn from urban and Navajo perspectives Sherwin Bitsui articulates the challenge a Native American person faces in reconciling his or her inherited history of lore and spirit with the coldness of postmodern civilization Shapeshift is a collection of startling new poetry that explores the tensions between the worlds of nature and man Through brief imagistic poems interspersed with evocative longer narratives it offers powerful perceptions of American culture and politics and their lack of spiritual grounding Linking story history and voice Shapeshift is laced with interweaving images the gravitational pull of a fishbowl the scent of burning hair the trickle of motor oil from a harpooned log that speak to the rich diversity of contemporary Din writing Tonight I draw a raven s wing inside a circle measured a half second before it expands into a hand I wrap its worn grip over our feet As we thrash against pine needles inside the earthen pot With complexities of tone that shift between disconnectedness and wholeness irony and sincerity Bitsui demonstrates a balance of excitement and intellect rarely found in a debut volume As deft as it is daring Shapeshift teases the mind and stirs the imagination Flood Song Sherwin Bitsui, 2009 I bite my eyes shut between these songs So begins Flood Song a concentrated interweaving painterly sequence in which Native tradition scrapes against contemporary urban life In his second book Sherwin Bitsui intones landscapes real and imagined populated with the wrens winds and reeds of the high desert and constructed from the bricks and gasoline of the city Reverent to his family s indigenous traditions while simultaneously indebted to European modernism and surrealism Bitsui is at the forefront of a younger generation of Native writers His poems are highly imagistic and constantly in motion drawing as readily upon Dine Navajo myths customs and medicine songs as they do contemporary language and poetics I map a shrinking map Bitsui writes a map tribal and individual elemental and modern and utterly astonishing Speak Like Singing Kenneth Lincoln, 2007 Speak Like Singing honors talk song visions for all relatives and seeks to plumb if not to reconcile Native and American poetics tribal chorus and solitary vision Intimate Grammars Anthony K. Webster, 2016-05-01 On April 24 2013 Luci Tapahonso became the first poet laureate of the Navajo Nation possibly the first Native American community to create such a post The establishment of this position testifies to the importance of Navajo poets and poetry to the Navajo Nation It also indicates the Navajo equivalence to the poetic traditions connected with the U S poet laureate and the poet laureate of the United Kingdom author Anthony K Webster asserts as well as its separateness from those traditions Intimate Grammars takes an ethnographic and ethnopoetic approach to language and culture in contemporary time in which poetry and poets are increasingly important and visible in the Navajo Nation Webster uses interviews and linguistic analysis to understand the kinds of social work that Navajo poets engage in through their poetry Based on more than a decade of ethnographic and linguistic research Webster s book explores a variety of topics the emotional value assigned to various languages spoken on the Navajo Nation through poetry Navajo English Navlish

Navajo and English why Navajo poets write about the ugliness of the Navajo Nation and the way contemporary Navajo poetry connects young Navajos to the Navajo language Webster also discusses how contemporary Navajo poetry challenges the creeping standardization of written Navajo and how boarding school experiences influence how Navajo poets write poetry and how Navajo readers appreciate contemporary Navajo poetry Through the work of poets such as Luci Tapahonso Laura Tohe Rex Lee Jim Gloria Emerson Blackhorse Mitchell Esther Belin Sherwin Bitsui and many others Webster provides new ways of thinking about contemporary Navajo poets and poetry Intimate Grammars offers an exciting new ethnography of speaking ethnopoetics and discourse centered examinations of language and culture Postindian Aesthetics Debra K. American Indian Literature Kimberly Wieser-Weryackwe, 2025-07-10 Discover the essential people works movements and themes in American Indian literature American Indian literature is a varied and vibrant collection of Indigenous artistic expression American Indian novelists poets essayists and critics have over the last four centuries asserted powerful forms of intellectual and artistic sovereignty writing in English while building on discrete tribal oral traditions and forms of storytelling This encyclopedia introduces readers to the key historical and contemporary figures in American Indian literature and their defining works From the fiery sermons of Methodist minister William Apsess to the Pulitzer Prize winning novel House Made of Dawn by N Scott Momaday to the critically acclaimed and commercially successful novels of Louise

Erdrich this book illustrates the indelible and influential imprint American Indians have on the landscape of American letters Readers are also introduced to the key themes and context of American Indian literature exploring how it is inextricable from American literary history the American literary canon and the narrative of American history not on the fringes of the American experience but central to it Dissolve Sherwin Bitsui, 2019-06-18 Bitsui's poetry returns things to their basic elements and voice in a flowing language rife with illuminating images A great reading experience for those who like serious and innovative poetry Library Journal Drawing upon Navajo history and enduring tradition Sherwin Bitsui leads us on a treacherous otherworldly passage through the American Southwest Fluidly shape shifting and captured by language that functions like a moving camera Dissolve is urban and rural past and present in the haze of the reservation Bitsui proves himself to be one of this century's most haunting raw and uncompromising voices From Untitled Jeweled with houseflies leather rattles foil wrapped ferment in beaked masks on the shores of evaporating lakes This plot now a hotel garden its fountain gushing forth the slashed wrists of the Colorado River Sherwin Bitsui was raised in White Cone Arizona on the Navajo Reservation He is the author of two other books of poetry among them Flood Song which won an American Book Award He currently lives in Arizona where he has served on the faculty of the Institute of American Indian Arts

The Science Fiction of Poetics and the Avant-Garde Imagination Michael Golston, 2023-11-19 How the tropes of science fiction infuse and inform avant garde poetics and many other kindred arts This insightful playful monograph from Golston does exactly what it advertises modeling poetics based on how poetry and some parallel artistic endeavors have filtered through a century plus of science fiction This is not a book about science fiction in and of itself but it is a book about the resonances of science fiction tropes and ideas in poetic language The germ of Golston's project is a throwaway line in Robert Smithson's Entropy and the New Monuments about how cinema supplanted nature as inspiration for many of his fellow artists The movies give a ritual pattern to the lives of many artists and this induces a kind of low budget mysticism which keeps them in a perpetual trance Golston charts how the demotic appeal of sci fi much like that of the B movie cross pollinated into poetry and other branches of the avant garde Golston creates what he calls a regular Rube Goldberg machine of a critical apparatus drawing on Walter Benjamin Roman Jakobson and Gilles Deleuze He starts by acknowledging that per the important work of Darko Suvin to situate science fiction critically the genre is premised on cognitive estrangement But he is not interested in the specific nuts and bolts of science fiction as it exists but rather how science fiction has created a model not only for other poets but also for musicians and landscape artists Golston's critical lens moves around quite a bit but he begins with familiar enough subjects Edgar Rice Burroughs Mina Loy William S Burroughs From there he moves into more alien terrain Ed Dorn's long poem Gunslinger the discombobulated work of Clark Coolidge Sun Ra Ornette Coleman and Jimi Hendrix all come under consideration The result of Golston's restless rich scholarship is the first substantial monograph on science fiction and avant garde poetics using Russian Formalism Frankfurt School dialectics and Deleuzian theory to show how the avant garde inherently follows the parameters of sci fi in both theme and form Engaged Resistance Dean Rader, 2011-04-01 From Sherman Alexie's films to the poetry and fiction of Louise Erdrich and Leslie Marmon Silko to the paintings of Jaune Quick To See Smith and the sculpture of Edgar Heap of Birds Native American movies literature and art have become increasingly influential garnering critical praise and enjoying mainstream popularity Recognizing that the time has come for a critical assessment of this exceptional artistic output and its significance to American Indian and American issues Dean Rader offers the first interdisciplinary examination of how American Indian artists filmmakers and writers tell their own stories Beginning with rarely seen photographs documents and paintings from the Alcatraz Occupation in 1969 and closing with an innovative reading of the National Museum of the American Indian Rader initiates a conversation about how Native Americans have turned to artistic expression as a means of articulating cultural sovereignty autonomy and survival Focusing on figures such as author director Sherman Alexie Flight Face and Smoke Signals artist Jaune Quick To See Smith director Chris Eyre Skins author Louise Erdrich Jacklight The Last Report on the Miracles at Little No Horse sculptor Edgar Heap of Birds novelist Leslie Marmon Silko sculptor Allen Houser filmmaker and actress Valerie Red Horse and other writers including Joy Harjo LeAnne Howe and David Treuer Rader shows how these artists use aesthetic expression as a means of both engagement with and resistance to the dominant U S culture Raising a constellation of new questions about Native cultural production Rader greatly increases our understanding of what aesthetic modes of resistance can accomplish that legal or political actions cannot as well as why Native peoples are turning to creative forms of resistance to assert deeply held ethical values Red Ink, 2002
