Out of Our Minds Ken Robinson, 2011-02-21 It is often said that education and training are the keys to the future They are but a key can be turned in two directions Turn it one way and you lock resources away even from those they belong to Turn it the other way and you release resources and give people back to themselves To realize our true creative potential in our organizations in our schools and in our communities we need to think differently about ourselves and to act differently towards each other We must learn to be creative Ken Robinson PRAISE FOR OUT OF OUR MINDS Ken Robinson writes brilliantly about the different ways in which creativity is undervalued and ignored especially in our educational systems John Cleese Out of Our Minds explains why being creative in today s world is a vital necessity This book is not to be missed Ken Blanchard co author of The One minute Manager and The Secret If ever there was a time when creativity was necessary for the survival and growth of any organization it is now This book more than any other I know provides important insights on how leaders can evoke and sustain those creative juices Warren Bennis Distinguished Professor of Business University of Southern California Thomas S Murphy Distinguished Research Fellow Harvard Business School Best selling Author Geeks and Geesers All corporate leaders should read this book Richard Scase Author and Business Forecaster This really is a remarkable book It does for human resources what Rachel Carson s Silent Spring did for the environment Wally Olins Founder Wolff Olins Books about creativity are not always creative Ken Robinson s is a welcome exception Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi c s and d j Davidson Professor of Psychology Claremont Graduate University Director Quality of Life Research Center Best selling Author Flow The best analysis I ve seen of the disjunction between the kinds of intelligence that we have traditionally honored in schools and the kinds of creativity that we need today in our organizations and our society
