Shaping Sanctuary:

Shaping Sanctuary Kelly Turney, 2000 Shaping the Church Martyn Percy, 2016-04-01 This book seeks to dynamically alter the way that theologians ecclesiologists students of religion and ministers look at the church Taking the ideas of composition formation and vocation as basic ecclesial categories Martyn Percy explores how apparently innocent and incidental material is in fact highly significant for the shaping of theological and ecclesiological horizons The Introduction sets the tone with a meditation on how the apparently ordinary scent of a country church can be redolent with meaning setting the tone of expectation in relation to subsequent worship This book is not however simply about reading meanings into events ideas conversations and contexts Rather it sets out to faithfully interpret much of the material that surrounds us yet is often taken for granted or more usually unnoticed The book is an invitation to involve the scholar or minister paying close and patient attention to beliefs language artefacts rituals practices and other material all of which are constitutive for ecclesial life and theological identity Shaping Ceremony Mary B. Hollinshead, 2015 Shaping Ceremony offers a fresh approach to ancient Greek architecture using the overlooked subject of monumental steps incorporating biomechanics theory and social context Smith & Hawken Garden Structures Linda Joan Smith, 2000-01-01 Illustrates ideas for fences stone walls trellises archways gazebos and other structures to implement in gardens and provides information on executing plans

Queering Christian Worship Bryan Cones, 2023-11-21 A groundbreaking collection of writings that place queer ritual at the center of the theological conversation In this collection of essays leading scholars in queer theology and liturgical studies explore the ways in which the distinctive theological voices of LGBTQIA Christians challenge and expand thinking and practice around worship in new directions This challenge has expanded in the past decades as obstacles to the full participation of queer Christians particularly in marriage and ordination have fallen Organized into three main parts the volume begins with an introduction to queer engagement with ritual practices continues with a series of case studies that examine queer texts and contexts and concludes with an examination of the horizons of queer liturgical theology and practice Throughout the volume Queering Christian Worship provides new imagination and tools to those who study and curate Christian worship across traditions Heritage and War William Bülow, Helen Frowe, Derek Matravers, Joshua Lewis Thomas, 2023 Heritage and War investigates a variety of philosophical and moral questions arising from the phenomenon of heritage destruction in war Water Shaping Stone Kathryn Lilla Cox, 2016-01-15 The Catholic Tradition requires the faithful to form and follow their conscience This is the case even with the recognition that consciences can be malformed and one can make errors in practical judgments Water Shaping Stone examines various aspects of this tradition regarding conscience by using among other sources twentieth century magisterial documents theologians works and Scripture Kathryn Lilla Cox argues that while the Magisterium retains teaching authority and a responsibility to help form consciences through its teaching focusing only on the Magisterium leads to incomplete formation A more holistic vision of conscience formation means considering the formation of the moral agent to be a multifaceted process that draws on for example teaching prayer rituals Scripture practices and virtues along with relationships with the Triune God and communities of accountability This vision of conscience formation retains the magisterial teaching authority while acknowledging discipleship as the theological basis for making and assessing practical judgments of conscience
