Shaping The City Studies In History Theory And Urban Design:

Shaping the City Rodolphe El-Khoury, Edwards Robbins, 2015-06-23 Taking on the key issues in urban design Shaping the City examines the critical ideas that have driven these themes and debates through a study of particular cities at important periods in their development As well as retaining crucial discussions about cities such as Los Angeles Atlanta Chicago Detroit Philadelphia and Brasilia at particular moments in their history that exemplified the problems and themes at hand like the mega city the post colonial city and New Urbanism in this new edition the editors have introduced new case studies critical to any study of contemporary urbanism China Dubai Tijuana and the wider issues of informal cities in the Global South The book serves as both a textbook for classes in urban design planning and theory and is also attractive to the increasing interest in urbanism by scholars in other fields Shaping the City provides an essential overview of the range and variety of urbanisms and urban issues that are critical to an understanding of contemporary urbanism Globalization, Urbanization, and Civil Society Bagoes Wiryomartono, 2023-05-15 Globalization Urbanization and Civil Society is an interdisciplinary compilation of chapters concerning civil society in the global geopolitical context The establishment of civil society is essential for urbanism and the global community because it is the sense and essence of development concerning what humankind is as a collective entity on the globe This thought provoking book covers the multidimensional aspects issues challenges and consequences of geopolitics and globalization on civil society including freedom in the public sphere alienation neo fascism social cohesion racial inequality political narcissism political economic exceptionalism Islamic radicalism social justice and resistance The author brings a fresh and essentially non Western critical perspective to bear on the fundamental challenges faced by civil society as a result of the globalization of corporate capitalism in the Digital Age as well as providing a rich perspective on colonialism This book will appeal to scholars and graduate students of geopolitics and globalization global development sociology international relations cultural studies psychology and philosophy as well as practitioners and policymakers who are interested in interdisciplinary approaches in the field of global studies Hollywood Action Films and Spatial Theory Nick Jones, 2015-03-02 This book applies the discourse of the so called spatial turn to popular contemporary cinema in particular the action sequences of twenty first century Hollywood productions Tackling a variety of spatial imaginations contemporary iconic architecture globalisation and non places phenomenological knowledge of place consumerist spaces of commodity purchase cyberspace the diverse case studies not only detail the range of ways in which action sequences represent the challenge of surviving and acting in contemporary space but also reveal the consistent qualities of spatial appropriation and spatial manipulation that define the form Jones argues that action sequences dramatise the restrictions and possibilities of space offering examples of radical spatial praxis through their depictions of spatial engagement struggle and eventual transcendence A Greene Country Towne Alan C. Braddock, Laura Turner Igoe, 2016-12-12 An unconventional history of Philadelphia that operates at the threshold of cultural and environmental studies A Greene Country Towne expands the meaning of community beyond people to encompass nonhuman beings things and forces By examining a diverse range of cultural acts and material objects created in Philadelphia from Native American artifacts early stoves and literary works to public parks photographs and paintings through the lens of new materialism the essays in A Greene Country Towne ask us to consider an urban environmental history in which humans are not the only protagonists This collection reimagines the city as a system of constantly evolving constituents and agencies that have interacted over time a system powerfully captured by Philadelphia artists writers architects and planners since the seventeenth century In addition to the editors contributors to this volume are Maria Farland Nate Gabriel Andrea L M Hansen Scott Hicks Michael Dean Mackintosh Amy E Menzer Stephen Nepa John Ott Sue Ann Prince and Mary I Unger

The City of Grace David Wadley, 2019-11-29 In this sweeping appraisal of the urban condition David Wadley argues that anything less than high level resolution in modelling the well being of inhabitants is wasting precious time Humanity is encountering rising entropy caused by unsustainable economic and demographic expansion Supported by a strong interdisciplinary backdrop featuring systems and crisis theories The City of Grace tackles these obstacles by picturing gracious function and graceful form in a human scale settlement In an attempt to salvage things lost in the teleology of urban development over the last 100 years the outlook is both heterodox and contrarian How long can we all go on in the present way In addressing grace a more elevated concept than those focusing previous urban analyses this manifesto aims not to placate or please but instead to get humanity to face the encompassing realities it tries so hard to forget The Urbanism

Reader Stefan Al, Tom Verebes, 2025-02-06 Positioning design at the center of the debate The Urbanism Reader brings together classic and contemporary readings to help designers understand the complexities of cities and urban design in the 21st century The selection of readings presented here is uniquely tailored to a design perspective for architects and urban designers balancing social issues in urbanism with a clear focus on foregrounding design as an instrument for change in cities and examining the outcomes and challenges of recent design theories design methods and technologies in the built urban environment Covering today's most urgent issues 45 texts explore key topics in urbanism from digital design technologies to smart cities from the ongoing ecological crisis to public health and the impact of Covid 19 and from emergence and informality to economic inequity in global cities Chapters cover cultural issues including diversity indigenous knowledge decolonization social justice and inclusion alongside technological developments while a final chapter speculates on the future of urbanism through readings in AI virtual reality and the frontiers of current thinking in architecture and urban design The extracts are grouped by theme each with an introduction to the historical contexts and guiding paradigms helping design students researchers and professionals to make sense of the diverse field of theory and practice in the past present and future of global urbanism The Sustainable City VII M. Pacetti, G. Passerini, C.A. Brebbia, G. Latini, 2012-05-07
