Yearning to Labor John P. Murphy,2017-05 In the first decade of the twenty first century France underwent a particularly turbulent period during which urban riots in 2005 and labor protests in 2006 galvanized people across the country and brought the question of youth unemployment among its poorer multiethnic outer cities into the national spotlight Drawing on more than a year of ethnographic field research in the housing projects of the French city of Limoges Yearning to Labor chronicles the everyday struggles of a group of young people as they confront unemployment at more than triple the national rate and the crushing despair it engenders Against the background of this ethnographic context John P Murphy illuminates how the global spread of neoliberal ideologies and practices is experienced firsthand by contemporary urban youths in the process of constructing their identities An original investigation of the social ties that produce this community Yearning to Labor explores the ways these young men and women respond to the challenges of economic liberalization deindustrialization and social exclusion At its heart Yearning to Labor asks if the French republican model of social integration assimilation and equality before the law remains viable in a context marked by severe economic exclusion in communities of ethnic and religious diversity Yearning to Labor is both an ethnographic account of a certain group of French youths as they navigate a suffocating job market and an analysis of the mechanisms underlying the shifting economic inequalities at the beginning of the twenty first century

Anthropological Perspectives on Local Development Simone Abram,Jacqueline Waldren,2003-12-16 This collection examines the conflicts and realities of development at a local empirical level It provides a series of case studies which illuminate the attitudes and actions of all of those involved in local development schemes The material is drawn from Southern and Eastern Europe Asia and Africa All the contributors use rigorous anthropological methods of analysis to shed light on the place of feelings of personal sentiment and identity in reactions to planned development schemes In a world where direct action and public protest are routine responses to local development schemes they show how protesters developers and politicians often hold very different fundamental views about the environment society government and development which go beyond partisan economic and political interests

Themes in French Culture Rhoda Métraux, Margaret Mead, 2001 Margaret Mead collaborated with her long time colleague Rhoda Métraux in this unique study of French culture The Hoover Institute at Stanford University originally published this volume which grew out of the Columbia University project on Research of Contemporary Cultures in 1954 It is one of the few works by American social scientists dealing with broad themes of French life Mead and Métraux present a vivid picture of the French starting with the organization of the house and its architecture and drawing original conclusions for the structure of French families and overall cultural values This work long out of print is a fascinating and penetrating portrait of a contemporary European society
