Speaking/Writing of God Michael Oppenheim, 2012-02-01 Speaking Writing of God explores the manner in which religious language develops in answer to the challenges and promise of three features of the life with others the encounter between persons the quest by Jewish women to be accepted including their distinctiveness otherness as women as full participants in Jewish communal life and the dialogue between Jews and non Jews Although a major stream of modern Jewish philosophy has focused on the transcendent dimension of the relationship between persons this book studies the contribution of feminist Judaism to modern Jewish philosophy and the impact of religious pluralism on Jewish religious life and thought

Safeguarding the Stranger Jayme R Reaves, 2017-08-31 In our troubled world protective hospitality is tragically necessary and requires informed shared action and belief on behalf of the threatened other In Safeguarding the Stranger Jayme R Reaves argues that protective hospitality and its faith based foundations as seen in the Abrahamic traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam merit greater theological attention Reaves shows that the practice of protective hospitality in Christianity can be enhanced by a better understanding of Jewish and Muslim practices of hospitality as well as of their codes and etiquettes related to honour Safeguarding the Stranger draws on a contextual and political theological approach informed by liberation and feminist theologies as viewed through the lens of a co operative and complementary theological view which is influenced by inter religious Abrahamic and hospitable approaches to dialogue forecasting the positive role that religions can play in resolving conflicts
