Channel 4 and the British Film Industry, 1982-1998 Laura Mayne, 2024-04-30 This monograph offers the first ever comprehensive study of Channel 4's film production distribution and broadcasting activities and represents a significant contribution to British cinema and television history The importance of Channel 4 to the British film industry over the last 40 years cannot be overstated The birth of the Channel in 1982 heralded a convergence between the UK film and television sectors which was particularly notable given that the two industries had historically been at loggerheads In addition to its role as a broadcaster and curator of feature film programming since its inception Channel 4 has funded or co funded hundreds of feature films through its film commissioning arm Film4 The Channel's commitment to financing between 15 20 films per year helped form the backbone of the ailing film sector throughout the 1980s and early 1990s while Film4 funding has also been instrumental to the success of many companies which have become vital to the British film industry

The Film Edge Eduardo Angel Russo, 2010 What does it mean to make films in Latin America The landscape today is as complex as it is dynamic New directors and new projects are constantly emerging film festivals appear one after another in what could only be described as an explosion of cinema in the region And yet inherent to this panorama both so vital and so difficult to define there is a troubling sense of uncertainty This book which brings together the writing of directors producers scholars and critics examines the current state of Latin American cinema Exploring tendencies and possibilities for the future of the audiovisual arts within the context of recent changes in methods of production and circulation the authors address a number of key issues including the role of independent filmmaking in the market and in relation to alternative modes of production the formation of new regional and global identities means of support for filmmakers in Latin America and the question of new formats categories and genres The result is less a mosaic of fragments than it is a tapestry whose interwoven threads create complex and changing shapes that constitute the fabric itself This tapestry allows us to glimpse beyond their particularities the points of contact between different parts of the region This book is an abridged and revised edition of HACER CINE Produccion Audiovisual en America Latina published in 2008 by Fundacion TyPA and Editorial Paidos This new book edited by Eduardo A Russo and translated from the Spanish by Heather Cleary Wolfgang was made possible by the support of the Rockefeller Foundation
