Crabgrass Catholicism Stephen M. Koeth, 2005-08-19 How suburbanization was a crucial catalyst for reforms in the Catholic Church The 1960s in America were a time of revolt against the stifling conformism embodied in the sprawling uniform suburbs of the 1950s Typically the reforms of the Catholic Church's Second Vatican Council which aimed to make the Church more modern and accessible are seen as one result of that broader cultural liberalization Yet in Crabgrass Catholicism Stephen M Koeth demonstrates that the liberalization of the Church was instead the product of the mass suburbanization that began some fifteen years earlier Koeth argues that postwar suburbanization revolutionized the Catholic parish the relationship between clergy and laity conceptions of parochial education and Catholic participation in US politics and thereby was a significant factor in the religious disaffiliation that only accelerated in subsequent decades A novel exploration of the role of Catholics in postwar suburbanization Crabgrass Catholicism will be of particular interest to urban historians scholars of American Catholicism and religious studies and Catholic clergy and laity Tuition Tax Credits United States. The Spirit of Vatican II Colleen McDannell,2011-03-01 In 1962 a group of Catholic leaders traveled to Rome charged by Pope John XXIII with the task of making the gospel of Christ relevant in a modern world The Second Vatican Council transformed the lives of Catholics through sweeping reforms yet its effect on the daily lives of practicing Catholics has never been fully understood In this illuminating study religious historian Colleen McDannell presents new insight into Vatican II by shifting the framework of its analysis from men to women from urban to suburban from theory to practice Using the story of her Catholic mother s life as a narrative thread McDannell presents in The Spirit of Vatican II a refreshingly positive portrayal of the state of modern Catholicism and a testament to the lasting effects of its liberalization Tuition Tax Credit--1983 United States.
