Beckett's Eighteenth Century F. Smith,2001-12-17 Beckett's Eighteenth Century is the first book length study of Samuel Beckett's affinity with the British eighteenth century and of the influence of its writers on his work Reading Swift Pope Defoe Fielding Sterne Johnson Gray and other writers of this period this study demonstrates how he was not only influenced by them but interprets them for us in a quite modern way Beckett's uniqueness is not questioned here but this uniqueness is shown paradoxically to have its roots at least in part in his native literature of two centuries ago

The Dramatic Works of Samuel Beckett Charles A. Carpenter,2011-10-13 A selectively comprehensive bibliography of the vast literature about Samuel Beckett's dramatic works arranged for the efficient and convenient use of scholars on all levels

Samuel Beckett's Legacies in American Fiction James Baxter,2021-11-30 Samuel Beckett's Legacies in American Fiction provides an overdue investigation into Beckett's rich influences over American writing Through in depth readings of postmodern authors such as Robert Coover Donald Barthelme Thomas Pynchon Don DeLillo Paul Auster and Lydia Davis this book situates Beckett's post war writing of exhaustion and generation in relation to the emergence of an explosive American avant garde In turn this study provides a valuable insight into the practical realities of Beckett's dissemination in America following the author's long standing relationship with the countercultural magazine Evergreen Review and its dramatic role in redrawing the possibilities of American culture in the 1960s While Beckett would be largely removed from his American context this book follows his vigorous albeit sometimes awkward reception alongside the authors and institutions central to shaping his legacies in 20th and 21st century America

Poetics of the Elements in the Human Condition: The Sea Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2012-12-06

Samuel Beckett's How It Is Anthony Cordingley,2018-09-07 A critical guide to the philosophy of Giorgio Agamben organised around the philosophers and thinkers he draws on and critiques

Talking to the Dead Nina Witoszek,Pat Sheeran,2022-02-22 Talking to the Dead is an essay on death and its tenacious hold on Irish culture There are few traditions in which funerary motifs have been so ubiquitous in literature popular rituals folk representations public rhetorics even constructions of place There are even fewer cultures in which funerary genres and preoccupations constitute the central thread of continuity The Irish Theatrum Mortis is not simply an obsession of writers from the bards to Beckett and Heaney Nor is it confined to contemporary Republican iconography It is to be found in the pages of the local press in acts of ritual resistance to unpopular decisions in the way in which significant public events are narrated and framed Though the funerary Ireland presented here may well yield to the new positive self image of the Celtic Tiger it is the authors contention that at the end of the twentieth century the funerary sign continues to define Irish identity For good and ill it is the centre that holds

Life Creative Mimesis of Emotion Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 Are emotions feelings sentiments not the stuff of literature That is where they project their inner logic of aesthetic transmutation there beyond the instrument of language that they command This collection explores how the lyrical virtualities of life experience and the elegiac style in literature share a common core lifting the human significance of life from abysmal vitality to esoteric heights from abysmal grief to a serene reconciliation with destiny The elegiac sequence in the play of emotions feelings sentiments brings together life and literary creativity in its transformatory power With papers by A Giuculescu John McGraw R Ellis A Carillo Can n B Watson S Bindeman R J Wilson L Kimmel B Prochaska T Raczka Chr Eykman J S Smith G Scheper S Feshbach I Vayl H Rudnick and others

The Work of Difference Audrey Wasser, 2016-03-01 The Work of Difference addresses a fundamental ontological question What is literature And at the heart of this question it argues is the problem of the new How is it that new works or new forms are possible within the rule governed orders of history language use or the social How are new works in turn recognizable to already existing institutions Tracing the relationship between literature and the problem of newness back to a set of concerns first articulated in early German romanticism this book goes on to mount a critique of romantic tendencies in contemporary criticism in order ultimately to develop an original theory of literary production Along the way it offers new readings of major modernist novels by Samuel Beckett Marcel Proust and Gertrude Stein

The Medieval Presence in Modernist Literature Jonathan Ulliot, 2016 This book rethinks the influence that early medieval studies and Grail narratives had on modernist literature Through examining several canonical works from Henry James The Golden Bowl to Samuel Beckett's Molloy Ulliot argues that these texts serve as a continuation of the Grail legend inspired by medieval scholarship

Modernist Exoskeleton Murray Rachel Murray, 2020-03-02 Argues for the importance of insects to modernism's formal innovations Uses the idea of the insect as a key to modernist writers' engagement with questions of politics psychology life and literary form Provides in depth analysis of lesser known modernist narratives such as H D's Asphodel and Lewis's Snooty Baronet as well as new readings of canonical texts including D H Lawrence's Lady Chatterley's Lover and Samuel Beckett's Trilogy Explores the influence of popular scientific writing on modernist aesthetics Reveals the attentiveness of modernist writers to nonhuman life thus forging new lines of connection between modernism and literary animal studies Focusing on the writing of Wyndham Lewis D H Lawrence H D and Samuel Beckett this book uncovers a shared fascination with the aesthetic possibilities of the insect body its adaptive powers distinct stages of growth and swarming formations Through a series of close readings it proposes that the figure of the exoskeleton which functions both as a protective outer layer and as a site of encounter can enhance our understanding of modernism s engagement with nonhuman life as well as its questioning of the boundaries of the human

Comparative Criticism: Volume 5, Hermeneutic Criticism E. S. Shaffer, 1986-04-17 Addresses literary theory and criticism comparative studies in terms of theme genre movement and influence and interdisciplinary perspectives

Death Casey Jarman, 2019-08-01 In this illuminating collection of oral history style interviews Casey Jarman talks to a funeral industry watchdog about the often shady history of the death trade he hears how songwriter David Bazan lost his faith while trying to hold on to his family he learns about cartoonist Art Spiegelman using his college LSD trips to explain death to his children and he gets to know his own grandparents posthumously These are stories of loss rebuilding wonder and wild speculation featuring everyone from philosophers to former death row wardens and hospice volunteers In these moving enlightening and often funny conversations the end is only the beginning

Beckett's Theaters Sidney Homan, 1984 The work focuses on the practical and philosophic sides of performance set within the context of Beckett s own aesthetic theory his fiction and poetry as well as a history of the critical and scholarly studies of his work Winner of the Bucknell University Press Award

Twentieth-century Poetry, Fiction, Theory Harry Raphael Garvin, John D. Kirkland, 1977 The issues addressed in this volume include the limits of language and the need for linguistic form the significance of creating

Zone of Evaporation Paul Stewart, 2006 Annotation From the comic incongruities of Watt to the ontological gaps of The Unnameable Zone of Evaporation demonstrates the crucial consistent role disjunction played in Beckett s novels The book describes Beckett s divergence from Proustian metaphor and the revelation of the real towards an art which exploited the gaps and fissures within language and narrative and ultimately to an art which would go on to upset the post structuralism of Jacques Derrida

Jacket Listening in Eric Prieto, 2002-01-01 What can music teach a novelist autobiographer or playwright about the art of telling stories The musical play of forms and sounds seems initially to have little to do with the representational function of the traditional narrative genres Yet throughout the modernist era music has been invoked as a model for narrative in its specifically mimetic dimension Although modernist writers may conceive of musical communication in widely divergent ways they have tended to agree on one crucial point that music can help transform narrative into a medium better adapted to the representation of consciousness Eric Prieto studies the twentieth century evolution of this use of music with particular emphasis on the postwar Parisian avant garde For such writers as Samuel Beckett Michel Leiris and Robert Pinget music provides a number of guiding metaphors for the inwardly directed mode of mimesis that Prieto calls listening in where the object of representation is not the outside world but the subtly modulating relations between consciousness and world This kind of semiotic boundary crossing between music and literature is inherently metaphorical but as Prieto's analyses of Beckett, Leiris and Pinget show these interart analogies provide valuable clues for bringing to light the unspoken assumptions, obscurely understood principles and extra-literary aspirations that gave such urgency to the modernist quest to better represent the mind in action.
