exploration of a comparison between the views of women and men abroad and the differences in what they deemed interesting and worthy of comment The book is especially relevant in light of the many past and current xenophobic views of the foreigner Here we more often see travellers viewing their experience of otherness and exoticism in a positive light a cultural appreciation rather than a cultural appropriation This book examines how men and women saw these new worlds opening up before them what delighted them what influenced them and their interaction with others in the light of domesticity antiquity politics work science sex and friendships
