Lovers In Lisbon:

Lovers in Lisbon Barbara Cartland,1987 Amália Rodrigues's Amália at the Olympia Lila Ellen Gray,2023-07-27

The voice of Amália Rodrigues 1920-1999 the Queen of Fado and Portugal's most celebrated diva was extraordinary for its interpretive power, soul-wrenching timbre and international reach. Amália at the Olympia 1957 is an album made from recordings of her first performances at the fabled Olympia Music Hall in Paris in 1956. This album, which was issued for multiple national markets including France, USA, Japan, Britain, the Netherlands, catapulted Amália Rodrigues into the international limelight. During its time, this album held the potential for international listeners outside of Portugal to represent Portugal while also standing in for cosmopolitanism, the glamorous city of Paris and to present a sonorous voyage in sound. This book introduces readers to the voice of Amália Rodrigues and to the genre of the Portuguese fado, offering a primer in how to listen to both. It unpacks this iconic album and the voice, sound style and celebrity of Amália Rodrigues. It situates this album within a historical context marked by cold-war Atlanticist diplomacy, Portugal's dictatorial regime and the emergence of new forms of media, travel and tourism. In so doing, it examines processes that shaped the internationalization of peripheral popular musics and the making of female vocal stardom in the mid-20th century. Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège,2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France, dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works, the first public viewing of films anywhere. Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès, Alice Guy, Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond. In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895. From undisputed masters to obscure one-timers, nearly 3,000 directors are cited here, including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France. Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death, information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym. The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films, shorts, documentaries and television work. Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia, from masters of the Golden Age, Jean Renoir and René Clair, to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard. Families, Lovers, and their Letters Sonia Cancian,2010-05-01 Families, Lovers, and their Letters takes us into the passionate hearts and minds of ordinary people caught in the heartbreak of transatlantic migration. It examines the experiences of Italian migrants to Canada and their loved ones left behind in Italy following the Second World War, when the largest migration of Italians to Canada took place. In a micro-analysis of 400 private letters, including three collections that incorporate letters from both sides of the Atlantic, Sonia Cancian provides new evidence on the bidirectional flow of communication during migration. She analyzes how kinship networks functioned as a means of support and control through the flow of news, objects and persons, how gender roles in productive and reproductive spheres were reinforced as a means of coping with separation and how the emotional impact of both temporary and permanent separation was expressed during the migration process Cancian also examines the love letter as a specific form of epistolary exchange a first in Italian immigrant historiography revealing the powerful effect that romantic love had on the migration experience
