Marketing Strategy The Challenge Of The External Environment

Steven G. Hillestad, Eric N. Berkowitz

Marketing Strategy The Challenge Of The External Environment:

Marketing Strategy David Mercer,1998-06-18 Marketing Strategy is a unique introduction to marketing strategy development The volume adds future studies methodology to traditional methods of environmental analysis and presents a marketing approach for dealing effectively with the increasingly dynamic business environment Paradoxically the fast changing business environment of today requires a longer planning horizon than the short and medium term typically covered by environmental analysis Marketing Strategy provides this by supplementing traditional environmental analysis for example scanning and market research with future studies methodology for example forecasting and scenarios It shows how these powerful techniques and insights can b
