Contemporary Painting in Germany Beate Stärk, 1994 At the end of the 1970s and the beginning of the 1980s German art more specifically West German painting achieved a spectacular and surprising presence on the national and international art market These artists were often referred to as Neo expressionists or New Wilds Many of the painters who became internationally acknowledged during this time are represented in this book The works of artists who did not follow this particular path are also discussed Since the Berlin Wall came down on 9 November 1989 the art scene in Germany has been stimulated also by a large number of artists who have been living and working in the former German Democratic Republic

German Art Now Cornelia Homburg, Sean Rainbird, Catharina Manchanda, 2003 German Art Now focuses on the extraordinary group of artists and photographers that emerged in Germany in the decades following the end of World War II and whose wide ranging themes and powerful aesthetic have established them as major figures on the world art stage Featuring Joseph Beuys Georg Baselitz Jörg Immendorff Anselm Kiefer Markus Lüpertz A. R. Penck Sigmar Polke and Gerhard Richter this survey examines the way in which through their sculptures paintings and drawings these artists have confronted issues of national identity defeat and recovery mythology and the burdens of history and the responsibilities of art in society They have developed new forms of expression in which to address these themes and their impact on the fields of abstract and figurative art Pop Art photo realism and performance art has been significant Similarities of background and generation bind them into a recognizable group yet as the authors show their resistance to any similarities of subject matter medium style or artistic persona continues to ensure their individuality Markus Lüpertz - Daphne, photographed by Benjamin Katz
