The African Diaspora Patrick Manning, 2010-03-05 Patrick Manning follows the multiple routes that brought Africans and people of African descent into contact with one another and with Europe Asia and the Americas In joining these stories he shows how the waters of the Atlantic Ocean the Mediterranean Sea and the Indian Ocean fueled dynamic interactions among black communities and cultures and how these patterns resembled those of a number of connected diasporas concurrently taking shaping across the globe Manning begins in 1400 and traces the connections that enabled Africans to mutually identify and hold together as a global community He tracks discourses on race changes in economic circumstance the evolving character of family life and the growth of popular culture He underscores the profound influence that the African diaspora had on world history and demonstrates the inextricable link between black migration and the rise of modernity Inclusive and far reaching The African Diaspora proves that the advent of modernity cannot be fully understood without taking the African peoples and the African continent into account

Afro-Cuban Diasporas in the Atlantic World Solimar Otero, 2010 Afro Cuban Diasporas in the Atlantic World explores how Yoruba and Afro Cuban communities moved across the Atlantic between the Americas and Africa in successive waves in the nineteenth century In Havana Yoruba slaves from Lagos banded together to buy their freedom and sail home to Nigeria Once in Lagos this Cuban repatriate community became known as the Aguda This community built their own neighborhood that celebrated their Afrolatino heritage For these Yoruba and Afro Cuban diasporic populations nostalgic constructions of family and community play the role of narrating and locating a longed for home By providing a link between the workings of nostalgia and the construction of home this volume re theorizes cultural imaginaries as a source for diasporic community reinvention Through ethnographic fieldwork and research in folkloristics Otero reveals that the Aguda identify strongly with their Afro Cuban roots in contemporary times Their fluid identity moves from Yoruba to Cuban and back again in a manner that illustrates the truly cyclical nature of transnational Atlantic community affiliation Solimar Otero is Associate Professor of English and a folklorist at Louisiana State University Her research centers on gender sexuality Afro Caribbean spirituality and Yoruba traditional religion in folklore literature and ethnography Dr Otero is the recipient of a Ruth Landes Memorial Research Fund grant 2013 a fellowship at the Harvard Divinity School s Women s Studies in Religion Program 2009 to 2010 and a Fulbright award 2001

The African Diaspora Toyin Falola, 2013 The African diaspora is arguably the most important event in modern African history From the fifteenth century to the present millions of Africans have been dispersed many of them forcibly others driven by economic need or political persecution to other continents creating large communities with African origins living outside their native lands The majority of these communities are in North America This historic displacement has meant that Africans are irrevocably connected to economic and political developments in the West and globally Among the known legacies of the diaspora are slavery colonialism racism poverty and underdevelopment yet the ways in which these same factors worked to spur the scattering of Africans are not fully understood by those who were part of this migration or by scholars historians and policymakers In this definitive study of the diaspora in North America Toyin Falola offers a causal history of the western dispersion of Africans and its effects on the modern world Reengaging old and familiar debates and framing new ones that enrich the discourse surrounding Africa Falola isolates the thread running nearly six centuries that connects the history of slavery the transatlantic slave trade and current migrations A boon to scholars and policymakers and accessible to the general reader the book explores diverse narratives of migration and shows that the cultures that migrated from Africa to the Americas have the capacity to unite and create a new pan Africanist movement within the globalized world Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin He is the 2011 recipient of the Distinguished Africanist Award from the African Studies Association and serves as the vice president of the International Scientific Committee of the UNESCO Slave Route Project His previous books published by the University of Rochester Press include The Power of African Cultures and Nationalism and African Intellectuals Maroon Cosmopolitics ,2018-12-10 Maroon Cosmopolitics Personhood Creativity and Incorporation sheds further light on the contemporary modes of Maroon circulation and presence in Suriname and in the French Guiana The contributors assembled in the volume look to describe Maroon ways of inhabiting transforming and circulating through different localities in the Guianas as well as their modes of creating and incorporating knowledge and artefacts into their social relations and spaces By bringing together authors with diverse perspectives on the situation of the Guianese Maroon at the twenty first century the volume contributes to the anthropological literature on Maroon societies providing ethnographic and historical depth and legitimacy to the contemporary lives of the descendants of those who fled from slavery in the Americas Surveying the American Tropics Maria Cristina Fumagalli,Peter Hulme,Owen Robinson,Lesley Wylie,2013-07-01 A collection of essays from distinguished international scholars that explore the idea of a literary geography of the American Tropics Between Resistance and Expansion Peter Probst,Gerd Spittler,2004 This book grew from an International Symposium on Local Vitality and the Globalization of the Local at Bayreuth University in May 2002
