All You Need Is Love & Other Lies About Marriage John W. Jacobs,2024-06-11

Why is it so difficult to remain married in the twenty first century and what can you do about it We all know that half of today's marriages end in divorce but we tend to believe that our own marriages are safe As psychiatrist John Jacobs explains in this fresh and impassioned book marriages today are incredibly fragile and unless a couple understands what is making contemporary marriage so vulnerable to dissolution the marriage is at risk Part of the problem is that people refuse to see how social and historical forces have changed the very meaning of marriage causing serious interpersonal unhappiness Because of increased longevity married people live together longer than at any time in history There's been an erosion of the social and cultural forces that traditionally kept marriages together Confusion over gender role responsibilities increased expectations of sexual satisfaction and intense time pressures on couples to work and be successful all create marital stress And yet most people don't acknowledge the problems in their marriage until it is too late We tend to believe in the lies of marriage such concepts as soul mates unconditional love that children improve a relationship that the sexual revolution has made marital sex more pleasurable or that egalitarian marriage offers couples easy solutions and forget to engage in the constant hardwork required to keep our marriages alive Dr Jacobs believes that most marriages have significant problems at some time but until we recognize the new realities of marriage and develop the skills required to sustain a loving intimate relationship marriages are at risk Of course marriage is about love But that's just the beginning

The Transforming Believer Zulibe Turner, 2012 I saw the Lord delivers me and my parents and brothers and sisters from death Death came to our door to threaten our lives in the form of Rebels during the civil war in Sierra Leone It came in the form of heavily armed insurgents dressed up in army uniforms holding guns and machine guns in army trucks never seen in my life by then Disgust with evil and desperation to kill and to destroy they call aloud for all the occupants in our home to come out and shot rapidly at our gated fence in Sierra Leone And soon we saw them one after the other jumped out their truck and violently thump the gate At the face of death when I imagine as already told by some of our friends of young girls that were already raped and brutally killed my heart fainted The smell of death as horrible as it smell did not consumed us With our last hope we cried out to the Lord and sort the face of God to deliver us from death and miraculously these people suddenly left our front gate without any of us been hurt They shouted as they went we are coming back but I tell you this the Lord never permitted them to come back The lord rescued us Also lost in sea when all hopes disappeared were the rumbling thunders and lightens stroke like consuming fire God became the captain and in the mist of hopelessness brought deliverance The Lord has constantly and continuously been with me up to this hour in my life
