Choices William R. Johnston P.E., 2022-03-10 Mr Johnston has written an interesting unconventional chronological summary of his life from birth through age 87 He intricately blends his professional and personal life throughout the book as he points out how the many CHOICES made by himself and by others have impacted his life He reminisces about his family life education experiences personal relationships and work obligations He shows how the experience of growing up on an Oregon farm provided him with life lasting teachings Mr Johnston describes his marriages his children their children and related joyous plus not so joyous experiences He describes his various job assignments his consulting practice and how his work related to his personal life Mr Johnston s overseas consulting exposed him to numerous foreign cultures Those consulting experiences influenced his desire to travel and see even more of the world which he outlines in his chronology

Sexual Identity and Lesbian Family Life Iris Erh-Ya Pai, 2017-07-11 This new book illustrates how Taiwanese lesbians negotiate their lives outside patriarchal families while seeking varying ways to maintain working relationships with their families of origin as their notion of family distinguishes them from same sex couples in other countries This ambivalence has a strong influence on their relational decisions as they deal with contradictions between family ties filial piety and lesbianism Based on individual and couple interviews with self identified lesbian couples in stable relationships the book offers vivid narratives of different ways in which Taiwanese lesbians have been able to make sense of their families without recognition by legislation or their families of origin Specific issues in Taiwan raised in the book challenge the taken for granted understandings of same sex relationships and review the dramatic transformations that have profoundly changed womens position It also offers a sensitive analysis of GLBT issues and heteronormativity arguing that Chinese familialism can cohabite with lesbianism in the context of contemporary Taiwan

Work-Lifestyle Choices in the 21st Century Catherine Hakim,2000-11-02 In this book Hakim presents a new multi disciplinary theory for explaining and predicting current and future patterns of women s choice between employment and family work Preference theory is the first theory developed specifically to explain women s behaviour and choices As such it constitutes a major break from male centred theorizing to date in sociology and economics Preference theory is grounded on the substantial body of new research on women s work and fertility that has flourished within feminist scholarship It identifies five major historical changes that collectively are producing a qualitatively new scenario for women in prosperous societies in the 21st century Throughout the analysis the USA and Britain illustrate what the new scenario means for women how it alters their preferences and work lifestyles choices Hakim also reviews research evidence on contemporary developments across Europe Canada Australia Japan and the far East to develop a new theory that is genuine international in perspective

Stepfamily Relationships Lawrence H. Ganong,Marilyn Coleman,2011-06-27 This volume focuses on a wide range of behaviors and outcomes in stepfamily relationships both positive and negative The authors use the normative adaptive perspective to seek out and study adaptive well functioning stepfamilies and find how they differ from those who struggle to cope It will be a welcome text and reference for all those who study and work with stepfamilies and families in general

In the Company of Women Karen Hollinger, The locus of Jim dale Huot Vickery s life is a remote cabin in the northern wilderness of Minnesota s Boundary Waters region More often than not it is winter here a fierce beautiful season that dominates all living things with its relentless cold grip This is the inspiration for Winter Sign the profound story of fifteen years of surviving the seven month long odyssey of winter in the far north We know parkas mukluks mittens snowshoes skis and sled dogs Huot Vickery writes Snow sparkles gold on cloudless winter mornings There are shell pink sunsets Stars glimmer among northern lights For those of us who know this land however beauty is only part of the winter story There are those long nights those we rarely speak about that surely and irrevocably shift the soul Against this backdrop Huot Vickery writes authoritatively on the ecology of the area and philosophically about winter s probing of the human spirit He explores the world of nature and the constant struggle for survival including his own interactions with white tailed deer and wolves Huot Vickery circles around paradoxes and themes that invade the land and his life nature s beauty and bounty pitted against danger and death the challenge of self reliance and the depths of isolation loss and restoration And always there is the unrelenting winter filled with wonder and terror At turns poignant and harrowing Winter Sign explores the solitude of the dark night of the soul and the sustenance and
