Marriage And Modernization:

Marriage and Modernization Don S. Browning, 2003-03-20 The processes of modernization and globalization promise more wealth and health for many people But they are also a threat to the stability and quality of marriage and family life This new book at once sobering and constructive looks at the impact of these processes on marriage and asks what Christianity in cooperation with other religions can do to strengthen married life today Among the deleterious effects of modernization and globalization on marriage are a worldwide drift of men away from the responsibility of parenthood and the tendency of mothers too readily to take on the task of childrearing alone After looking at recent research on these and other problems Don Browning suggests that the cure for modern marital disruption entails reforming and reconstructing the institution of marriage while also nurturing relevant forms of social support Yet the effort to initiate a world marriage revival requires a complex cultural work and Browning explores the key contributions that the religions of the world must make for such an effort to be successful Some Aspects of the Modernization of Marriage Marilyn Ann Sperling, 1976 The Equal-Regard Family and Its Friendly Critics John Witte, M. Christian Green, Amy Wheeler, 2007-10-17 This volume is both a celebration and an evaluation of the work on sex marriage and family life by Don S Browning the dean of modern family studies in theological ethics and practical theology Scholars probe a number of Browning's contributions particularly his call for an ethic of equal regard within the household and wider society This book is a true interdisciplinary effort with insights from psychology history law theology biology ethics feminist theology childhood studies and education theory The Equal Regard Family and Its Friendly Critics includes seven honorary forewords ten original essays and a concluding essay by Don Browning himself Contributors Herbert Anderson Carol Browning Don S Browning Lisa Sowle Cahill M Christian Green Timothy P Jackson Martin E Marty Rebekah Miles Bonnie J Miller McLemore Richard Robert Osmer Garrett E Paul Stephen J Pope David Popenoe Stephen M Tipton Mary Stewart Van Leeuwen Linda J Waite John Wall Amy Wheeler Barbara Dafoe Whitehead John Witte Jr Equality and the Family Don S. Browning, 2007 In Equality and the Family Don

Browning pulls together essays he has published in the past in order to shed light on the path we should take in the future He contends that practical theology can be envisioned as a practical research program and he uses the very concrete example of the family to illustrate how this works Though it may sound unlikely that equality in the family can be based on Christian ideas Browning insists that it can and that it should His desire is to be pro family and pro marriage in ways that create justice and equality within the family Based on this goal he argues for the church's ideal model of the mother father partnership to be balanced with an understanding and acceptance of the pluralism of family forms as a part of modern life including church life A brief introduction of each essay is included to help the reader understand the original context of the piece Modernization of Marriage , 1913 Globalization and the Mission of the Church Neil J. Ormerod, Shane

Clifton, 2011-10-27 Various social political economic and cultural commentators are presently arguing that human history is reaching a decisive stage in its development a stage marked by increased interconnection between peoples the compression of space and time a sharing of ideas at unprecedented levels global trade and finance and so on The shorthand word used to encompass these phenomena is globalization Some embrace it others reject it while still others dispute its existence But with the abundance of literature and debate that it generates the topic cannot be ignored From its inception in the missionary mandate of Jesus Matthew 28 Christianity has had a global dimension to its mission Christianity is not a spectator to globalization but one of its agents one of the forces at work which have extended interconnection between peoples shared ideas and promoted social political and cultural links The purpose of the present work is not to provide a complete response to the question of the mission of the church in a globalizing world but to establish a framework within which answers may be sought Grounded in the writings of Bernard Lonergan and Robert Doran it develops a theology of history and addresses the churches response to the impact of globalization on vital social cultural personal and religious values The project brings together the perspectives of Catholicism and Pentecostalism the former providing a depth of wisdom and tradition the latter drawing on the insight of a newly emerging movement that has taken root in every continent with remarkable energy and enthusiasm

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes.
