Marriage Debt:

The Catholic Church on Marital Intercourse Robert Obach,2008-12-16 The Catholic Church on Marital Intercourse traces the development of the Church's theology of marital sexuality from New Testament times to the present day The early ecclesial leaders promoted a theology of sexuality based on Stoicism's biological perception that sexual activity was solely for the purpose of reproduction Only in the early twentieth century did a few theologians begin to move beyond discussing the purposes of marital intercourse to discussing the meaning that the marital act might have for the spouses themselves With the Second Vatican Council 1962-1965 a new and positive view of marital sexuality emerged recognizing the Pauline view that the couple's marital acts express their love for each other along the lines of Christ's love for his church Ephesians 5 In sum The Catholic Church on Marital Intercourse treats the way in which the Catholic Church has moved away from an attitude of conditional acceptance of marital intercourse on the basis of its utility to recognition that the dynamics of sexual union are both good and holy not only because that is the way children are conceived but also because the marital act enhances the love of husband and wife for each other

Summa Theologica, Part III (Tertia Pars) Thomas Aquinas, 2021-12-12 Summa Theologica Part III Tertia Pars Thomas Aquinas The Summa Theologiae Latin Compendium of Theology or Theological Compendium also subsequently called the Summa Theologica or simply the Summa written 1265-1274 is the best known work of Thomas Aquinas c. 1225-1274 and although unfinished one of the classics of the history of philosophy and one of the most influential works of Western literature It is intended as a manual for beginners in theology and a compendium of all of the main theological teachings of the Church It presents the reasoning for almost all points of Christian theology in the West The Summa's topics follow a cycle the existence of God Creation Man Man's purpose Christ the Sacraments and back to God courtesy of wikipedia.com This is part 3 Tertia Pars The way which leads to God is Christ the theme of part III It can be asserted that the incarnation was absolutely necessary The Unio between the Logos and the human nature is a relation between the divine and the human nature which comes about by both natures being brought together in the one person of the Logos An incarnation can be spoken of only in the sense that the human nature began to be in the eternal hypostasis of the divine nature So Christ is unum since his human nature lacks the hypostasis The person of the Logos accordingly has assumed the impersonal human nature and in such way that the assumption of the soul became the means for the assumption of the body This union with the human soul is the gratia unionis which leads to the impartation of the gratia habitualis from the Logos to the human nature Thereby all human potentialities are made perfect in Jesus Besides the perfections given by the vision of God which Jesus enjoyed from the beginning he receives all others by the gratia habitualis
