Stone,David A. Strauss,2019-12-05 In Democracy and Equality in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the end of the Warren Court the eminent legal scholars Geoffrey R Stone and David A Strauss demonstrate that the jurisprudence of the Warren Court represented a high point in the history of constitutional interpretation and that the Warren Court s approach to the Constitution was principled and consistent with the core values of our Constitution and the fundamental responsibilities of our judiciary Despite almost sixty five years of unwarranted attacks by conservatives the contributions of the Warren Court to our nation s commitments to democracy and equality remain unmatched in the history of the Supreme Court The Local Courts' and Municipal Gazette ,1869 The Hummingbird Theory Morgan Sinclair,2005-01-20 The Hummingbird Theory is a journey into the heart of the Cumberland Mountains in a region of Virginia known to the world as Appalachia The enormous natural beauty of the Cumberlands is woven into each venue throughout The Hummingbird Theory however it is the colorful cast of characters that give glimpses into the cultural diversity of this unique region The characters bring to life the close knit mountain communities that share pride in their heritage and they provide a look into the fascinating history of an area that once thrived because of rich deposits of coal The Hummingbird Theory is much more than a story of life in a small mountain town it is a story about the choices we make in life and the paths those choices set us on It explores the spiritual nature of our human experience and the spiritual energy that defines who we are As the story weaves its way through the small mountain community of Crayton's Crossing there are mysteries to be solved and messages to be gleaned from the lives of the unlikely band of homegrown characters. One such message is for those living life according to The Hummingbird Theory. The Dublin University Magazine, 1871. Dublin University, A Literary Journal and Political Journal, 1871.
