Martin Buber And Feminist Ethics:

Martin Buber and Feminist Ethics James W. Walters, 2003-10-01 As a deeply religious thinker who disclaimed all rationalistic systems Martin Buber produced an insightful critique of modern philosophical ethics one that became productive soil for another nontraditional philosophical ethic feminism's care ethic In light of the recent emphasis on the new morality antifoundationalism and postmodernism in ethics the dialogical ethics of Martin Buber merits close examination Most important Walters compares and contrasts Buber's and feminism's personalist ethics in light of two considerations the lack of attention by feminist writers to the feminist Buber linkage and the long standing and general inattention by twentieth century thinkers to the ethical dimensions of Buber's thought

A Companion to Martin Buber Paul

Mendes-Flohr, 2025-06-25 A definitive international guide to the thought of the most important twentieth century Jewish philosopher In his 1923 essay I and Thou the philosopher theologian and activist Martin Buber introduced a philosophy of dialogue that achieved a global interdisciplinary resonance For Buber dialogue was more than a conversation dialogue discloses something essential about our orientation and our lives with one another This companion assembles twenty six scholars from a dozen countries to explore Buber's international reputation and legacy in education interfaith relations Judaism philosophy politics and psychology The result is an essential guide to one of the most influential Jewish thinkers of the twentieth century

My Friendship with Martin Buber Maurice Friedman, 2013-06-25 Martin Buber's philosophy of dialogue sought to express the human experience through the ways in which we encounter and interact with others His I Thou theory of dialogue and I It theory of monologue expressed ways of understanding one's place in the world in relation to others objects and especially God Buber died in 1965 leaving behind a vast library of writings and ardent students and scholars eager to engage with his ideas One of the most prominent scholars was Maurice Friedman Friedman and Buber shared a professional as well as a personal relationship based on translating interpreting and intellectual curiosity Beginning in the summer of 1950 and ending with Buber's death this volume takes the reader through Buber's three visits to America his wife's death the author's stay in Jerusalem and the articulation of Buber's culminating philosophy of the interhuman In tracing this chronology Friedman draws extensively on his personal collection of letters exchanged with Buber Intimate and meditative this book provides an exploration of a deeply intellectual friendship shared between two extraordinary thinkers
