Memphis, Martin, and the Mountaintop Alice Faye Duncan, 2018-08-28 Coretta Scott King Illustrator Honor Book School Library Journal Best Book of the Year Booklist Editors Choice Kirkus Reviews Best Children's Book Booklist Top 10 Diverse Books for Middle Grade or Older Readers Chicago Public Library Best of the Best Books This award winning book will help kids understand the life and legacy of Civil Rights leader Dr Martin Luther King Jr A history that everyone should know required and inspired Kirkus Reviews This picture book tells the story of a nine year old girl who in 1968 witnessed the Memphis sanitation strike Dr Martin Luther King Jr's final stand for justice before his assassination when her father a sanitation worker participated in the protest In February 1968 two African American sanitation workers were killed by unsafe equipment in Memphis Tennessee Outraged at the city's refusal to recognize a labor union that would fight for higher pay and safer working conditions sanitation workers went on strike The strike lasted two months during which Dr Martin Luther King Jr was called to help with the protests While his presence was greatly inspiring to the community this unfortunately would be his last stand for justice He was assassinated in his Memphis hotel the day after delivering his I've Been to the Mountaintop sermon in Mason Temple Church Inspired by the memories of a teacher who participated in the strike as a child author Alice Faye Duncan reveals the story of the Memphis sanitation strike from the perspective of a young girl with a riveting combination of poetry and prose To the Mountaintop Charlayne Hunter-Gault, 2012-01-03 Starting with the inauguration of Barack Obama in 2009 and working back to the early 1960s Hunter Gault covers many of the significant moments in the civil rights movement including her own pivotal role in desegregating the University of Georgia Includes many photographs The Mountaintop Katori Hall, 2024-02-22 The Mountaintop is published here as a Methuen Drama Student Edition featuring notes and commentary by Harvey Young Dean of the College of Fine Arts Boston University USA The introduction offers a discussion of key themes including race identity politics magical realism one act plays historical figures and martyrs The night before his assassination Martin Luther King Jr retires to room 306 in the now famous Lorraine Motel after giving an acclaimed speech to a massive church congregation When a mysterious young maid visits him to deliver a cup of coffee King is forced to confront his past and the future of his people Portraying rhetoric hope and ideals of social change The Mountaintop also explores being human in the face of inevitable death The play is a dramatic feat of daring originality historical narration and triumphant compassion The View from the Mountaintop Dr. T. Leon Williams, 2017-06-12 For nearly two decades Dr T Leon Williams has been visiting college campuses sharing his unique perspective of the historical relevance of the nation's progress through monologues of the beloved Rev Dr Martin Luther King Jr In The View from the Mountaintop Williams charts the course for the advancement of human relations from chance to change Drawing from his personal and professional experiences Williams attempts to make meaning of the lived experiences from childhood to adulthood that has shaped his attitude and perspective of America Through scholarly personal narratives and for the first time in Williams travels he shares his essays with the public Williams strategically addresses one question what would Dr King have to say today In his most provocative work Williams shares his perspective of rethinking nonviolence for the twenty first century Combating Mountaintop Removal Bryan T. McNeil,2011-11-08 Drawing on powerful personal testimonies of the hazards of mountaintop removal in southern West Virginia Combating Mountaintop Removal critically examines the fierce conflicts over this violent and increasingly prevalent form of strip mining Bryan T McNeil documents the changing relationships among the coal industry communities environment and economy from the perspective of local grassroots activist organizations and their broader networks Focusing on Coal River Mountain Watch CRMW an organization composed of individuals who have personal ties to the coal industry in the region the study reveals a turn away from once strong traditional labor unions and the emergence of community based activist organizations By framing social and moral arguments in terms of the environment these innovative hybrid movements take advantage of environmentalism s higher profile in contemporary politics In investigating the local effects of globalization and global economics McNeil tracks the profound reimagining of social and personal ideas such as identity history and landscape and considers their roles in organizing an agenda for progressive community activism Far, Far the Mountain Peak Arthur Clifford,2015-11-23

Rejected by his doctrinaire socialist mother and father while still a baby John Denby is sent down south to live with his wealthy grandfather and grandmother Educated at a private school and cosseted at home all he knows is the leafy London suburb where he lives and his self created world of steam train models and the Scripture Union Then a sudden tragedy strikes and he must return to the desolate proletarian North to live with his deeply unsympathetic parents and to attend an experimental state school that his father has helped set up A strange fish out of water he quickly discovers that to survive he must live a double life both sensitive posh git and daredevil hard lad Part Dickensian Bildungsroman part coruscating satire Far Far the Mountain Peak is an always engaging and sometimes deeply moving tale of an awkward boy struggling to find his place in the world Chosen Brooks B. Robinson,2010-02-04 CHOSEN BLACK AMERICA S CALLING is a three essay volume that is intended to move Black Americans toward nation formation Essay 1 Hebrews Jews and Black Americans is a religious essay which suggests that Black Americans are a chosen people for the current millennium Essay 2 Time to Move is an historical essay that describes current and future conditions that will motivate Black Americans to move toward nation formation Essay 3 Point Zero Nation Formation is an economic futures essay which provides a draft blueprint that Black Americans can use to construct a solid plan for founding their own nation This book builds on an earlier 2009 work CHOICE BLACK AMERICA S DECISION but it provides considerably more context which justifies a move toward nation formation by Black Americans While nation formation may appear to be a non existent alternative at this time conditions may unfold unexpectedly and rapidly which force Black Americans to initiate nation formation efforts Given the special role that Black Americans have been partially prepared to play on the world s stage during this millennium Black Americans must form their own new nation so that they can complete the preparation process Like a rejuvenated formerly abused spouse who has exited an abusive relationship and environment Black Americans can heal themselves within the protected confines of their new nation Afterwards they can go abroad to help heal and unite the people of the earth so that the world can recapture an Eden like state again Black Enterprise ,1986-01 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance Reaching the Mountaintop of the Academy Gail L. Thompson,Fred A. Bonner,Chance W. Lewis,2015-11-01 Since the U S Civil Rights era the racial composition of higher education has changed dramatically resulting in an increase in the number of African American students and African American faculty in predominantly white institutions PWI Nevertheless the number of African American endowed or distinguished professors remains small Because it is difficult for African American faculty to attain these prized positions those who have done so possess invaluable knowledge that may be beneficial to others Reaching the Mountaintop of the Academy Personal Narratives Advice and Strategies from Black Distinguished and Endowed Professors fills an important niche in the canon of higher education literature In the autobiographical chapters that follow numerous distinguished and endowed professors 1 describe their personal journey to the distinguished or endowed professorship 2 explain important life lessons that they learned during their journey 3 describe their current professional goals and 4 offer suggestions and recommendations for graduate students untenured faculty tenured faculty and college university administrators At a time when many predominantly white higher education institutions continue to have difficulty attracting and retaining African American faculty and African American faculty continue to struggle for full inclusion in the academy this book is timely and needed The Jewel on the Mountaintop Claus Madsen,2013-02-26 Authored by ESO senior advisor Claus Madsen the present book comprises 576 action packed pages of ESO history and dramatic stories about the people behind the organisation This is the ultimate historical account about ESO and its telescopes in the southern hemisphere but also about a truly remarkable European success story in research Spanning the range from the first telescopes to the future platforms of the next generation it shows how the improvement of the telescopes leads to a continuously changing view of the Universe With 150 photos and illustrations Produced especially for ESO s 50th anniversary
