Martyred Armenia Translation Into English From The Original Arabic:

The Armenians Hamo B. Vassilian, 1993 Christian Martyrs under Islam Christian C. Sahner, 2018-08-14 A look at the developing conflicts in Christian Muslim relations during late antiquity and the early Islamic era How did the medieval Middle East transform from a majority Christian world to a majority Muslim world and what role did violence play in this process Christian Martyrs under Islam explains how Christians across the early Islamic caliphate slowly converted to the faith of the Arab conquerors and how small groups of individuals rejected this faith through dramatic acts of resistance including apostasy and blasphemy Using previously untapped sources in a range of Middle Eastern languages Christian Sahner introduces an unknown group of martyrs who were executed at the hands of Muslim officials between the seventh and ninth centuries CE Found in places as diverse as Syria Spain Egypt and Armenia they include an alleged descendant of Muhammad who converted to Christianity high ranking Christian secretaries of the Muslim state who viciously insulted the Prophet and the children of mixed marriages between Muslims and Christians Sahner argues that Christians never experienced systematic persecution under the early caliphs and indeed they remained the largest portion of the population in the greater Middle East for centuries after the Arab conquest Still episodes of ferocious violence contributed to the spread of Islam within Christian societies and memories of this bloodshed played a key role in shaping Christian identity in the new Islamic empire Christian Martyrs under Islam examines how violence against Christians ended the age of porous religious boundaries and laid the foundations for more antagonistic Muslim Christian relations in the centuries to come Armenia through the Lens of Time , 2023-04-17 The open access publication of this book has been published with the support of the Swiss National Science Foundation From pilgrimage sites in the far west of Europe to the Persian court from mystic visions to a gruesome contemporary dance from a mundane poem on wine to staggering religious art thus far in space and time extends the world of the Armenians A glimpse of the vast and still largely unexplored threads that connect it to the wider world is offered by the papers assembled here in homage to one of the most versatile contemporary armenologists Theo Maarten van Lint This collection offers original insights through a multifaceted lens showing how much Armenology can offer to Art History History Linguistics Philology Literature and Religious Studies Scholars will find new inspirations and connections while the general reader will open a window to a world that is just as wide as it is often unseen The Armenian Apocalyptic Tradition Kevork Bardakjian, Sergio La Porta, 2014-05-28 The Armenian Apocalyptic Tradition A Comparative Perspective comprises a collection of essays on apocalyptic literature in the Armenian tradition This collection is unprecedented in its subject and scope and employs a comparative approach that situates the Armenian apocalyptic tradition within a broader context The topics in this volume include the role of apocalyptic literature and apocalypticism in the conversion of the Armenians to Christianity apocalyptic ideology and holy war the significance of the Book of Daniel in Armenian thought the reception of the Apocalypse of Ps Methodius in Armenian the role of apocalyptic literature in political ideologies and the expression of apocalypticism in the visual arts A Biblical Introduction William Henry Bennett, Walter Frederic Adeney, 1907 Biblical Introduction: Old Testament William Henry Bennett, 1899 The testimony of Justin martyr to early Christianity, lectures George Tybout Purves, 1890 The Doctrine of Addai and the Letters of Jesus and Abgar Jacob A. Lollar, 2023-11-10

The Doctrine of Addai tells the story of how Christianity came to the Syrian city of Edessa. It incorporates and adapts a correspondence between Jesus and the Syrian king Abgar who wrote to Jesus requesting healing from a long term illness. In his response Jesus promises to send him an apostle Addai sometimes called Thaddaeus who will heal Abgar's disease and establish Christianity in his kingdom. The exchange between Jesus and Abgar and Edessa's subsequent evangelization by Addai functions as a founding myth for Christianity in the region which likely did become Christian under a later King Abgar in the early third century. But the activities and interactions of Addai in Edessa reflect a later time the fifth century when Christians in the East were embroiled in a conflict over reforms enacted by the Bishop Rabbula. These complexities of Syrian Christian history are all made clear in the introduction and rich commentary that accompanies this updated English translation of the Doctrine of Addai and related texts including early witnesses to the Abgar Jesus Correspondence in papyri and inscriptions and selections from the Ecclesiastical History of Eusebius of Caesarea the Acts of Thaddaeus and the Acts of Mar Mari The Literary World Evert Augustus Duykinck, Charles Fenno Hoffman, George Long Duykinck, 1847 A Guide to Early Jewish Texts and Traditions in Christian Transmission Alexander Kulik, Lorenzo DiTommaso, 2019

The Jewish culture of the Hellenistic and early Roman periods established a basis for all monotheistic religions but its main sources have been preserved to a great degree through Christian transmission. This Guide is devoted to problems of preservation reception and transformation of Jewish texts and traditions of the Second Temple period in the many Christian milieus from the ancient world to the late medieval era. It approaches this corpus not as an artificial collection of reconstructed texts a body of hypothetical originals but rather from the perspective of the preserved materials examined in their religious social and political contexts. It also considers the other non-Christian channels of the survival of early Jewish materials including Rabbinic Gnostic Manichaean and Islamic. This unique project brings together scholars from many different fields in order to map the trajectories of early Jewish texts and traditions among diverse later cultures. It also provides a comprehensive and comparative introduction to this new field of study while bridging the gap between scholars of early Judaism and of medieval Christianity.
