expressions of Shi'i Islam in diverse and understudied demographic and geographic contexts. It engages with conceptual debates and makes several propositions that push the frontiers of scholarship on Islamic and Religious Studies, Material Religion, Heritage Studies, and Anthropology and Sociology of Religion. The contributions presented in this volume demonstrate how material things and less thing-like materialities make the praesentia and potentia of the Sacred tangible, how they cultivate intimate relations between human and more-than-human beings, and how they act as links and gateways to the Elsewhere and Otherworldly. The volume posits that materialities of religion are integral to processes of heritagization shaped by competing social and political actors involved in the construction and canonization of religious in this case Shi'i heritage.

Twelver Shiism Andrew J. Newman, 2013-11-20 Charts the history and development of Twelver Shi'ism. As many as 40 different Shi'i groups existed in the 9th and 10th centuries; only 3 forms remain. Why is Twelver Shi'ism one of them? As the established faith in modern Iran, the majority faith in Iraq and areas in the Gulf, and with its adherents forming sizeable minorities elsewhere in the region, it is arguably the most successful branch of Shi'ism. Andrew Newman charts the history of Twelver Shi'ism, uncovering the development of the key distinctive doctrines and practices which ensured its survival in the face of repeated challenges. He argues that the key to the faith's endurance has been its ability to institutionalise responses to the changing, often localised circumstances in which the community has found itself, thereby remaining remarkably resilient in the face of both internal disagreements and external opposition.

A Social History of Modern Tehran Ashkan Rezvani Naraghi, 2023-01-05 Tehran, the capital of Iran since the late eighteenth century, is now one of the largest cities in the Middle East. Exploring Tehran's development from the nineteenth to the mid-twentieth century, Ashkan Rezvani Naraghi paints a vibrant picture of a city undergoing rapid and dynamic social transformation. Rezvani Naraghi demonstrates that this shift was the product of a developing discourse around spatial knowledge in which the West became the model for the social practices of the state and sections of Iranian society. As traditional social spaces such as coffee houses, bathhouses, and mosques were replaced by European-style cafes, theatres, and sports clubs, Tehran and its people were irreversibly altered. Using an array of archival sources, Rezvani Naraghi stresses the agency of everyday inhabitants in shaping urban change. This enlightening history not only allows us to better understand the contours of contemporary Tehran but to develop a new way of imagining talking about and building the city The Making of Martyrdom in Modern Twelver Shi'ism Adel Hashemi, 2022-02-24 In Twelver Shi'a Islam the wait for the return of the Twelfth Imam Muhammad ibn al Hasan al Mahdi at the end of time overshadowed the value of actively seeking martyrdom However what is the place of martyrdom in Twelver Shi'ism today This book shows that the Islamic revolution in Iran resulted in the marriage of Shi'i messianism and extreme political activism changing the mindset of the Shi'a worldwide Suddenly each drop of martyrs blood brought the return of al Mahdi one step closer and the Islamic Republic of Iran supposedly became the prelude to the foretold world revolution of al Mahdi Adel Hashemi traces the unexplored area of Shi'i discourse on martyrdom from the 1979 revolution when the Islamic Republic's leaders cultivated the culture of martyrdom to topple the Shah's regime to the dramatic shift in the understanding of martyrdom today Also included are the reaction to the Syrian crisis the region's war with ISIS and other Salafi groups and the renewed commitment to the defense of shrines This book shows the striking shifts in the meaning of martyrdom in Shi'ism revealing the real relevance of the concept to the present day Muslim world Lamentation and Modernity in Literature, Philosophy, and Culture R.
