Marva Collins Way Returning To Excellence In Education:

Don't Let School Get in the Way of Education Anane N. Olatunji, 2025-07-01 Imagine the success our children can have if all found school emotionally fulfilling Unfortunately the reality is that far too many youth regardless of their social background don't enjoy school The premises policies and procedures that drive the conventional education model in the US create a system that reduces opportunities for self discovery Many students become alienated from school rather than empowered by it Consequently our youth underperform not only in school but also later on in the workplace Ultimately they fail to fulfill their potential and the contribution they could otherwise give to society In Don't Let School Get in the Way of Education author and education expert Dr Anane Olatunji gives us a detailed look at the rift between the conventional education system and the performance of youth exploring the disconnect between current academic approaches and students well being Dr Olatunji then presents a new paradigm for education his FACES framework centered on Fun Affirmation Challenge Expression and Success that empowers students and gives them the self knowledge they need to realize their full potential and aspirations School systems administrators teachers parents and their children will all benefit from this revolutionary approach to education Special Issue: Soka Approaches in Education Vol 9 No SI (2020) JIS Contributors, Special Issue Soka Approaches in Education Vol 9 No SI 2020 The Race Controversy in American Education Lillian Dowdell Drakeford Ph.D., 2015-07-28 In this unique two volume work expert scholars and practitioners examine race and racism in public education tackling controversial educational issues such as the school to prison pipeline charter schools school funding affirmative action and racialized curricula This work is built on the premise that recent efforts to advance color blind race neutral educational policies and reforms have not only proven ineffective in achieving racial equity and equality of educational opportunities and outcomes in America's public schools but also exacerbated existing inequalities That point is made through a collection of essays that examine the consequences of racial inequality on the school experience and success of students of color and other historically marginalized populations Addressing K 12 education and higher education in historically black as well as predominantly white institutions the work probes the impact of race and racism on education policies and reforms to determine the role schools school processes and school structures play in the perpetuation of racial inequality in American education Each volume validates the impact of race on teaching and learning and exposes the ways in which racism manifests itself in U S schools In addition practical recommendations are presented that may be used to confront and eradicate racism in education By exposing what happens when issues of race and racism are marginalized or ignored this collection will prepare readers to resist and perhaps finally overcome the racial inequality that plagues America's schools Urban Education for the 21st Century Festus E. Obiakor, Floyd D. Beachum, 2005 This timely book exposes the complexities and realities facing urbanness and urban schools that are inadequately funded and denigrated along with students who continue to be misidentified misassessed miscategorized misplaced and misinstructed by illprepared and unprepared educators and service providers The text very successfully demonstrates the comprehensive nature and connectedness of problems and prospects in urban education This book will be an added resource to researchers scholars educators and service providers It should be an excellent required text for graduate and undergraduate courses in all branches of education Addition ally the book will be of interest to education administrators at all levels public school teachers policy makers and change agents The thirteen chapters discuss and explore the following primary topics Urban education and the quest for democracy equity and excellence Educating urban learners with and without special needs Personnel preparation and urban schools Teaching and learning in urban schools Educational leadership in urban schools Insights into educational psychology and what urban practitioners must know Managing violence in urban schools Financing urban schools Reducing the power of whiteness in urban schools Promises and challenges of building and the future perspectives of urban education

Education Feminism Barbara J. Thayer-Bacon, Lynda Stone, Katharine M. Sprecher, 2013-11-18 Winner of the 2015 Critics Choice Book Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association Winner of the 2015 Critics Choice Book Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association Education Feminism is a revised and updated version of Lynda Stone's out of print anthology The Education Feminism Reader The text is intended as a course text and provides students a foundational base in feminist theories in education The classics section is comprised of the readings that students have most responded to in classes The contemporary readings section demonstrates how the third wave feminist criticism of the 1990s has an impact on today's feminist work Both of these sections address critical multicultural educational issues and have an inclusive diverse selection of feminist scholars who bring race class sexual orientation religious practices and colonial postcolonial perspectives to bear on their work The individual essays are concise and well written and arranged in such a way that it is easy for instructors to assign them around themes of their own choosing

Reaching Out to Children and Families Michelle R. Dunlap, 2000-11-08 Community service and learning experiences are booming as we enter the 21st century This practical guide assists college students and other constituents as they psychologically prepare for volunteering service learning practicums fieldwork assignments and internships in a diverse and ever changing world Though created with the novice community worker in mind this book will also assist professors teachers administrators and agency personnel in understanding and preparing workers for community service and learning in schools child care centers soup kitchens and shelters for the homeless Written in a practical conversational style this book offers the voices issues concerns and resources of more than 200 previous community workers This book includes their struggles with the initial adjustment process as well as ongoing gender race and class issues encountered in various service learning environments Topics range from choosing a community service site to appropriate methods of bringing closure to the experience when it is time to say good bye This book in essence provides hundreds of role models scenarios and worker perspectives that will help less inexperienced workers prepare for the real life hands on experiences of community
