Gray, 2002-05-21 Piers Gray was one of the most brilliant literary writers of his generation These essays ranging from Oscar Wilde to Levin from Shakespeare to pulp fiction use the full resources of literary and linguistic analysis to produce a reading of European culture and society in the twentieth century In his final posthumous essay On Linearity Gray summons all his reading and knowledge to deliver his final judgement on life and death Problems of Communism, 1952 Leo Kofler's Philosophy of Praxis: Western Marxism and Socialist Humanism Christoph Jünke, 2021-11-29 The German Austrian social theorist and philosopher Leo Kofler 1907 1995 represents what Oskar Negt once called unmutilated living Marxism Throughout his life he dealt with issues of history and modernity Marxist philosophy and the critique of ideology philosophical anthropology and aesthetics In this volume author and Kofler biographer Christoph Jünke elucidates the contours of his philosophy of praxis traces an arc from the socialist classics to postmodernism and outlines the socialist humanist thinker's enduring relevance The book also includes six essays by Leo Kofler published in English for the first time The main work was first published in German as Leo Kofler's Philosophie der Praxis Eine Einführung in sein Denken by Laika Verlag 2015 ISBN 978 944233 33 8 Copyright by Laika Verlag Totalitarianism and Literary Discourse Irma Ratiani, 2011-10-18 The collection Totalitarianism and Literary Discourse represents selected proceedings from the conference Totalitarianism and Literary Discourse 20th Century Experience held in Tbilisi Georgia in October 2009 The Tbilisi conference pioneered scholarly inquiry into post Soviet space which evaluated political and cultural realia emphasizing the challenges facing literature and culture in totalitarian strangleholds various kinds of ideological diktat their possible forms and consequences The Soviet type of totalitarianism was especially accentuated Decades after the collapse of the Soviet Union full comprehension of the process of Sovietization has become possible and in the field of literary studies scholars have worked on a number of issues assessing conceptual and motivational models of Soviet period texts demonstrating the reaction of literary discourse to intellectual terror and systematizing alternative models offered by anti Soviet discourse exhibiting the myths and stereotypes of the totalitarian epoch and classifying literary genres The collection Soviet Totalitarianism and Literary Discourse has gathered papers by scholars from almost all of the post Soviet states as well as of some other countries It is a first attempt to solve the above mentioned issues and offers a wide array of questions

Biography of a Blunder Dileep Edara, 2016-02-29 Engaging with a critical analysis of the base and superstructure thesis regarding which a surprising number of reputed Marxist thinkers betray a perpetual ambivalence by frequently deploying it in a variety of contexts but simultaneously airing various reservations about it this book proposes a radical departure from the presently predominant understanding of it The popular view of the base as comprising economics and superstructure as encompassing almost all other spheres of social life is criticised as panoramic or panoptic or the extended version to which Marx's rigorously defined base of production relations and superstructure of politico legal spheres is juxtaposed Revisiting Marx's formulations in his famous 1859 Preface described here as his purloined letters the study rehabilitates his restricted version and upholds its conceptual superiority over its extended avatar that is currently ubiquitous The substitution of Marx's restricted version with the widely believed extended version of the thesis is characterised here as a blunder and this book traces the biography of this blunder through the intricate and tortuous theoretical developments that traverse a transnational and multidisciplinary territory constituting the history of Marxism The last chapter argues for a paradigm shift in favour of the mode of production thesis in order to redeem the holistic vision of Marx This shift is necessitated by the extenuation of the status of the base and superstructure thesis that results from the restoration of Marx's restricted version This chapter grapples with the issues involved in preparing the ground for that shift It also contends that although these theoretical shifts are never formulated in a conscious and conclusive manner as is done here the best practices in Marxist analyses are always inspired by the methodological implications of the mode of production thesis and for this reason the thesis is claimed to be the conceptual unconscious of Marxism
