Marx's Capital And Today's Global Crisis:

Marx's Capital and Today's Global Crisis Raya Dunayevskaya, 1978 Marx's Philosophy of Revolution in Permanence for Our Day Raya Dunayevskaya, 2018-10-02 Marx's Philosophy of Revolution in Permanence for Our Day a selection of writings by the Marxist Humanist philosopher and revolutionary Raya Dunayevskaya brings out the contemporary urgency of Marx's work as a philosophy of revolution in permanence That dialectic permeates the totality of Marx's body of ideas and activities Major themes include Marx's transformation of the Hegelian dialectic the inseparability of Marx's economics humanism and dialectic the battle of ideas with post Marx Marxism beginning with Engels Black liberation internationalism and women's liberation today's burning question of the relationship between spontaneity organization and philosophy the emergence of counter revolution from within the revolution and the problem of what happens after the revolution An Analysis of Karl Marx's Capital Macat Team, 2017-07-05 A critical analysis of Karl Marx's Capital which is without question one of the most influential books to be published in the course of the past two centuries Controversial in its politics and arriving at conclusions that are passionately debated to this day it is nonetheless a fine example of the creative combination of a philosophical method the dialectic with historical and economic information to produce a new interpretation of history Capitalism thought Marx works by exploiting the working class Their wages do not reflect the value of their labor Marx concluded that capitalism would fail because of this contradiction at the heart of the capitalist system He wrote Capital to give activists the theories and language they needed to criticize the system But the work also outlines the new communist society that Marx hoped would rise in its place and it helped to inspire the rise of states that largely shaped the modern history of our planet Today after a century of conflict Marx's analysis still offers valuable tools that help us analyze the modern world Marx's belief that he had arrived at a scientific way of describing the present and predicting the future may not be shared by many of his modern interpreters But his ability to connect things together in new ways is not in doubt and nor is the influence of the new hypotheses that he generated as a result of so much careful analysis The Dunayevskaya-Marcuse-Fromm Correspondence, 1954-1978 Kevin Anderson, Russell Rockwell, 2012-01-01 This volume contains the correspondence during the years 1954 to 1978 between Marxist Humanist and feminist philosopher Raya Dunayevskaya 1910-87 and the Hegelian Marxist philosopher and social theorist Herbert Marcuse 1898-1979 and the psychologist and social critic Erich Fromm 1900-80 The exchanges show the deeply Marxist and humanist concerns of these theorists while also highlighting their significant differences on key issues in philosophy politics and psychology during the turbulent decades of the 1950s 1960s and 1970s The Power of Negativity Raya Dunayevskaya, 2002-01-01 Raya Dunayevskaya is hailed as the founder of Marxist Humanism in the United States In this new collection of her essays co editors Peter Hudis and Kevin B Anderson have crafted a work in which the true power and originality of Dunayevskaya's ideas are displayed This extensive collection of writings on Hegel Marx and dialectics captures Dunayevskaya's central dictum that contrary to the established views of Hegelians and Marxists Hegel was of signal importance to the theory and practice of Marxism The Power of Negativity sheds light not only on Marxist Humanism and the rooting of Dunayevskaya's Marxist Humanist theories in Hegel but also on the life of one of America's most penetrating and provocative critical thinkers

The Alienated Academic Richard Hall, 2018-08-25 Higher education is increasingly unable to engage usefully with global emergencies as its functions are repurposed for value Discourses of entrepreneurship impact and excellence realised through competition and the market mean that academics and students are increasingly alienated from themselves and their work This book applies Marx's concept of alienation to the realities of academic life in the Global North in order to explore how the idea of public education is subsumed under the law of value In a landscape of increased commodification of higher education the book explores the relationship between alienation and crisis before analysing how academic knowledge work identity and life are themselves alienated Finally it argues that through indignant struggle another world is possible grounded in alternative forms of organising life and producing socially useful knowledge ultimately requiring the abolition of academic labour This pioneering work will be of interest and value to all those working in the higher education sector as well as those concerned with the rise of neoliberalism and marketization within universities

Marx Worldwide Jan Hoff, 2016-11-21 In his study Jan Hoff charts the unprecedented global boost that has been experienced by critical Marxism since the mid 1960s In particular Hoff shows the development of interpretations of Marx's method of critical social theory oriented towards Marx's critique of political economy and of significant disputes concerning the different versions and iterations of the critical project that ultimately culminated in Capital His book investigates the globalisation of Marx debates the complex network of international theoretical approaches that have been devised between the poles of science and politics the transfer of theory and the historical development of schools of thought beyond national and linguistic borders Marx Worldwide provides an overview of Marx reception in various regions of the world in which the extra European process of theory formation receives particular attention and it shows how despite the supersession of Marxism in the sense of an all encompassing worldview the Marxian aim of providing an explication of the internal connection of economic categories and relations and thereby of accomplishing the demystification of the deranged world of the economy is as relevant and as theoretically important as it has ever been First published in German by Akademie Verlag as Marx Global Zur Entwicklung des internationalen Marx Diskurses seit 1965 Berlin 2009

'Capital' in the East Achin Chakraborty, Anjan Chakrabarti, Byasdeb Dasgupta, Samita Sen, 2019-10-23 This book pursues a Marxist approach with an emphasis on class to reflect on Marx's Capital in the context of the East It critically reassesses some of the familiar concepts in Capital and teases out issues that are at its periphery In various essays it explores this borderland to promote new concepts and modes of analysing Marx's treatise in the twenty first century Accordingly it represents an advance in Marxian theory and politics Examining Marx's Capital from the perspective and location of the East the book focuses on many issues that are at the borders of Capital which is concerned principally on unpacking developed capitalism New concepts are introduced and set in relation to those championed by Marx in order to advance our understanding of economy capitalism development and politics In this regard the book offers a reading of Capital that is distinct from conventional reflections on it in the Western world The scope is vast covering much of the territory in Marx's Capital as well as addressing a few new issues connected to Capital The content is divided into the following sections Reception of Capital in the East Value Commodity Surplus Value and Capitalism Population and Rent in Capital and Issues Beyond Capital Women's Liberation and the Dialectics of Revolution Raya Dunayevskaya, 1996 This collection of 35 years of Dunayevskaya's writings based on active participation interviews and meetings develops the dialectics of revolution which emerges from masses in motion including not only women and men but the forces of labour youth the black dimension and women's liberation The Philosophical Roots of Anti-Capitalism David Black, 2013-12-11 Alfred Sohn Rethel located the origin of philosophical abstraction in the false consciousness brought about by the new money economy of Greek Antiquity In the Enlightenment the conceptual barrier Kant put between phenomenal reality and the thing in itself expressed in Sohn Rethel's view the reified consciousness stemming from commodity exchange and the division of mental and manual labor Because Sohn Rethel saw the entire history of philosophy as branded by a timeless universal logic he dismissed Hegel's concept of totality as idealist and Hegel's critique of Kantian dualism as irrelevant to Marx's critique of political economy David Black in the title essay of The Philosophical Roots of Anti Capitalism suggests contra Sohn Rethel that Marx's exposition of the fetishism of commodities is historically specific to capitalist production and therefore cannot explain the origins of philosophy which Black shows to have involved various historical developments in Greek society and culture as well as monetization Just as Hegel's critique of Kantian formalism informs Marx's critique of capital Hegel's writings on how the proper organization of labor might abolish the barrier Aristotle put between production and the Realm of Freedom prefigure Marx's efforts to formulate of an alternative to capitalism Part Two Critique of the Situationist Dialectic Art Class Consciousness and Reification begins with Surrealism whose disappearance as a revolutionary artistic and social force Guy Debord and the Situationists sought to make up for by superseding the poetry of Art with the poetry of Life As well highlighting Debord's achievements in both theory and practice Black points to his philosophical shortcomings and relates these to Debord's later pessimistic assessment of the possibility of revolutionary class consciousness within globalizing capitalism The four essays in Part Three cover the Aristotelian anarchism the ambivalent legacy of Lukács's theory of reification Raya Dunayevskaya's Hegelian Marxist concept of absolute negativity as revolution in permanence and Gillian Rose's philosophical challenge to both postmodernism and traditional Marxism
