Marx's Ethical Vision Vanessa Christina Wills,2024 A central debate among scholars of Marx concerns whether Marxism has a moral content or is totally amoral perhaps either because it embraces a strict economic determinism or because it nihilistically sides with the proletariat without offering any objective justification for that stance Philosopher Vanessa Christina Wills argues that Marx does articulate an ethical perspective that is present throughout his writings both the more obviously humanistic and philosophical early writings and his later economic and more empirically grounded studies such as Capital The purposiveness of labor gives rise to a normativity already inherent in the present state of things one that can guide us in knowing what sort of world we should build and that further prepares us to build it Marxism and Ethics

Paul Blackledge,2012 Law and Bioethics: the Beginning of Life in China Simona Novaretti,2025-10-27 This book addresses the lack of knowledge surrounding the relationship between law and bioethics in China by investigating the ethical principles legal norms and case law pertaining to biotechnologies related to the formation and birth of a human being from both diachronic and synchronic perspectives The assumption is that understanding this relationship in a context that is traditionally perceived as distant and different from Europe and North America can facilitate a more profound comprehension of the dynamics and principles traditionally employed by Western legal systems to interpret and regulate these phenomena This in turn is expected to encourage transnational dialogue and cooperation in solving universal problems

The Review of Metaphysics ,1984 Liberal Socialism Ian Hunt,2015-10-22 Should we be looking for alternatives to the western world s status quo of neo liberal capitalism Should we be seeking a new form of freedom for a more just and better social world Drawing on Rawls s theory of justice and Marx s critique of capitalism this book answers those questions in a resounding affirmative Some think that a just society for Rawls cannot promote a better social world unless it is acceptable to all but this wrongly treats Rawls as a supporter of minimal government. Setting this aside, the book argues that the ideas of justice behind political and media pundit support of neo liberal capitalism are faulty and should be replaced with a Rawlsian idea of justice. Resistance to the idea that an acceptable theory of justice can say that capitalism is unjust is overcome by showing that capitalism as Marx sees it must be unjust on Rawls's theory of justice because it breaches the difference principle and involves exploitation of employees. Reasons are then given for a new society that will be just under a modified Rawlsian idea of justice and will promote the Marxian good of free social cooperation on projects pursued independently of demands of nature. What a free life lived in this new society means is spelled out and shown to be acceptable. This book concludes by asking whether society can set out on a path to a better social world. Marx and the Ancients George E. McCarthy, 1990-08-30 Marx and the Ancients is the first book length treatment to detail the relationship between classical Greek philosophy and Karl Marx's critique of political economy. From his dissertation on the physics and astronomy of Epicurus and Democritus to his later economic writings, Marx's view of the classical polis left its mark. George McCarthy argues that this forgotten element in Marx's thought helps clarify his positions on ethics and social justice. Freedom Santinath Chattopadhyay, 1998 The Book Brings To Light The Views Of Different Scholars And Thinkers Both Indian And Foreign For A Proper Evaluation Of The Concept Of Freedom. It aims at evaluating the problems and prospects of human life in the context of expanding its different creative states of freedom. The study is in four parts. Part I expounds the revolutionary outlook of 3 great thinkers: Marx, Bose and Gandhi. Part II expresses freedom in the development of different domains of existence. Part III shows freedom as intercultural awakening. Part IV deals with freedom as an expression of global consciousness. Condition Good.
