October Circle:

The Chautauquan, 1901 October Skies Don Rehm, 2011-11-30 With the flick of a wrist Ian Michaels throws a leather satchel containing what could be his greatest discovery out the window just moments before a horrific car crash leaves him clinging to life The only witness to the accident Celeste Noel watches in fear as two men search through the wreckage but walk away empty handed without even a glance at the lifeless driver In the days that follow Celeste an average fourteen year old girl and quite content with life in her small town is forced to follow her instincts as she hunts for answers to the growing mystery of the driver and his pursuers when she isn't even sure of the questions An examination of the wrecked vehicle and the driver's hospital room prove worthless in supplying answers for both Celeste and the two ex marines turned corporate problem solvers Any early sense of adventure is quickly replaced with fear as Celeste struggles to stay one step ahead of the two unknown men in a race for the missing satchel that eventually turns into a race for her life The Chautauquan Theodore L.
