Power Without Glory 1980 Edition:

The Censor's Library Nicole Moore, 2012 An absorbing exposé of the books we couldn't read didn't read didn't know about and the reasons why When Nicole Moore discovered the secret censor's library in the National Archives 793 boxes of books prohibited from the 1920s to the 1980s so began a journey that resulted in this the first comprehensive examination of Australian book censorship For much of the twentieth century Australia banned more books and more serious books than most other English speaking or Western countries from the Kama Sutra through to Huxley's Brave New World and Joyce's Ulysses Federal publications censorship was a largely secret affair and deliberately kept from the knowledge of the Australian public until the scandals and protests of late last century Censorship continues to attract heated debate from the Henson affair to the national internet feed Combining rigorous scholarship with the narrative tension of a thriller The Censors Library is a provocative account of this scandalous history Book jacket

Chicago Fundamentalism Craig Freedman, 2008 Cold war ideology infected the development of economics in ways its practitioners were often not fully aware The Chicago counter revolution against the dominant post war triumph of Keynesian analysis had an essential subtext a perceived struggle between freedom and collective slavery ideological objectives subsequently influenced methodological concerns pushing economists to adopt the zero sum tactics of the courtroom rather than the mutually beneficial manners of the senior common room In these ideologically charged times economists stopped reading opposing views carefully seeking instead to dismiss out of hand uncongenial ideas In this collection of previously published and new material Craig Freedman examines the problem of ideology through the reflection cast by the architects of the Chicago counter revolution George Stigler and Milton Friedman The second half of the volume demonstrates the legacy of these ideological fires namely a profession where the methodology of careless reading and zero
