The Raddle Moon , The Only Poetry That Matters Clint Burnham,2012-05-15 A thought provoking history of the internationally renowned language poetry group the Kootenay School of Writing Provisional Avant-Gardes Sophie Seita,2019-07-23 What would it mean to be avant garde today Arguing against the notion that the avant garde is dead or confined to historically failed movements this book offers a more dynamic and inclusive theory of avant gardes that accounts for how they work in our present Innovative in approach Provisional Avant Gardes focuses on the medium of the little magazine from early Dada experiments to feminist queer and digital publishing networks to understand avant gardes as provisional and heterogeneous communities Paying particular attention to neglected women writers artists and editors alongside more canonical figures it shows how the study of little magazines can change our views of literary and art history while shedding new light on individual careers By focusing on the avant garde s publishing history and group dynamics Sophie Seita also demonstrates a new methodology for writing about avant garde practice across time one that is applicable to other artistic and non artistic communities and that speaks to contemporary practitioners as much as scholars In the process she addresses fundamental questions about the intersections of aesthetic form and politics and about what we consider to be literature and art Women in Independent Publishing Stephanie Anderson,2024-12-15 Women in Independent Publishing is a collection of interviews with and resources about women actively engaged in small press publishing between the 1950s and the 1980s The interviewees include Hettie Jones Margaret Randall Bernadette Mayer and many others The scope and range of the interviews showcase a variety of types of publishing possible within the small press community These interviews illuminate the unifying and diverging elements between multiple publishing scenes and reveal their particularities and commonalities Women in Independent Publishing is a timely and urgent documentation of literary history and reveals and celebrates the multifaceted roles of women editors and publishers and the communities they built The book includes a critical introduction an afterword by contemporary small press publisher M C Hyland and a robust resources section that provides further paths for reading and literary recovery Moving Out ,1993 Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory,2009 An A to Z reference to writers of the New York School including John Ashbery who is often considered America s greatest living poet Examines significant movements in literary history and its development through the years Antiphonies Nate Dorward,2008 Cultural Writing Literary Criticism ANTIPHONIES is a primer on some of the most exciting work in contemporary Canadian poetry These essays discuss a wide range of work from books already acclaimed as modern classics such as Erin Moure s O Ciudadan Lisa Robertson s DEBBIE AN EPIC and Karen MacCormack s IMPLEXURES to the equally remarkable work of Susan Clark Catriona Strang Lissa Wolsak Christine Stewart Deanna Ferguson Lise Downe Nancy Shaw a rawlings Marie Annharte Baker and others The essays are complemented by brief selections of poems and poetics statements Writing in Our Time Pauline Butling,Susan Rudy,2009-10-22 Process

poetics is about radical poetry poetry that challenges dominant world views values and aesthetic practices with its use of unconventional punctuation interrupted syntax variable subject positions repetition fragmentation and disjunction To trace the aesthetically and politically radical poetries in English Canada since the 1960s Pauline Butling and Susan Rudy begin with the upstart poets published in Vancouver's TISH A Poetry Newsletter and follow the trajectory of process poetics in its national and international manifestations through the 1980s and 90s The poetics explored include the works of Nicole Brossard Daphne Marlatt bpNichol George Bowering Roy Kiyooka and Frank Davey in the 1960s and 70s For the 1980 2000 period the authors include essays on Jeff Derksen Clare Harris Erin Mour and Lisa Robertson They also look at books by older authors published after 1979 including Robin Blaser Robert Kroetsch and Fred Wah A historiography of the radical poets and a roster of the little magazines small press publishers literary festivals and other such sites that have sustained poetic experimentation provide context Leaving Lines of Gender Ann Vickery, 2000 The most significant contribution to the literary history of Language writing to date Emergency Measures Stephen Rodefer, 1987 What else is poetry for if it doesn't provide us with new ways of thinking There is a social issue to Stephen Rodefer's poems a comedy of manners The result is a relentless critique of social attitudes and literary determinism As an example of the speed up of human life and what effect it might have on its artists here is a poet who has experienced three or more revolutions in poetic consciousness who conversed as a young man with Robert Frost studied with Olson and Creeley and now lives and writes among the very lively poets of the Bay Area From horse to teleportation in one lifetime George Butterick SULFUR Poetry Poetry Matters Heather Milne, 2018-05-15 Poetry Matters explores poetry written by women from the United States and Canada which documents the social and political turmoil of the early twenty-first century and places this poetry in dialogue with recent currents of feminist theory including new materialism affect theory posthumanism and feminist engagements with neoliberalism and capitalism Central to this project is the conviction that a poetics that explores the political dimensions of affect demonstrates an understanding of subjectivity as posthuman and transcorporeal critically reflects on the impact of capitalism on queer racialized and female bodies and develops an ethical vocabulary for reimagining the nation state and critically engaging with issues of democracy and citizenship is now more urgent than ever before Milne focuses on poetry published after 2001 by writers who mostly began writing after the feminist writing movements of the 1980s but who have inherited and built upon their political and aesthetic legacies The poets discussed in this book including Jennifer Scappettone Margaret Christakos Larissa Lai Rita Wong Nikki Reimer Rachel Zolf Yedda Morrison Marcella Durand Evelyn Reilly Juliana Spahr Claudia Rankine Dionne Brand Jena Osman and Jen Benka bring a sense of political agency to poetry These voices seek new vocabularies and dissenting critical and aesthetic frameworks for thinking across issues of gender materiality capitalism the toxic convergences of nationalism and racism and the decline of democratic institutions This is poetry that matters both in its political urgency and in its attentiveness to the world as matter as a material entity under siege It could not be more
