Creating African Fashion Histories JoAnn McGregor, Heather Akou, Nicola Stylianou, 2022-04-05 Creating African Fashion Histories examines the stark disjuncture between African self fashioning and museum practices Conventionally African clothing textiles and body adornments were classified by museums as examples of trade goods art and ethnographic materials never as fashion Counterposing the dynamism of African fashion with museums historic holdings thus provides a unique way of confronting ways in which coloniality persists in knowledge and institutions today This volume brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars and curators to debate sources and approaches for constructing African fashion histories and to examine their potential for decolonizing museums fashion studies and global cultural history The editors of this volume seek to answer questions such as How can researchers use museum collections to reveal traces of past self fashioning that are obscured by racialized forms of knowledge and institutional practice How can archival visual oral ethnographic and online sources be deployed to capture the diversity of African sartorial pasts How can scholars and curators decolonize the Eurocentric frames of thinking encapsulated in historic collections and current curricula Can new collections of African fashion decolonize museum practice From Moroccan fashion bloggers to upmarket Lagos designers the voices in this ground breaking collection reveal fascinating histories and geographies of circulation within and beyond the continent and its diasporic communities

The Berg Companion to Fashion Valerie Steele, 2015-08-01 An essential reference for students curators and scholars of fashion cultural studies and the expanding range of disciplines that see fashion as imbued with meaning far beyond the material Over 300 in depth entries covering designers articles of clothing key concepts and styles Edited and introduced by Valerie Steele a scholar who has revolutionized the study of fashion and who has been described by The Washington Post as one of fashion's brainiest women Derided by some as frivolous even dangerous and celebrated by others as art fashion is anything but a neutral topic Behind the hype and the glamour is an industry that affects all cultures of the world A potent force in the global economy fashion is also highly influential in everyday lives even amongst those who may feel impervious This handy volume is a one stop reference for anyone interested in fashion its meaning history and theory From Avedon to Codpiece Dandyism to the G String Japanese Fashion to Subcultures Trickle down to Zoot Suit The Berg Companion to Fashion provides a comprehensive overview of this most fascinating of topics and will serve as the benchmark guide to the subject for many years to come The Fashion Chronicles Amber Butchart,2018-09-06 From BBC television and radio presenter Amber Butchart The Fashion Chronicles is an exploration of 100 of the most fascinating style stories ever told From Eve's fig leaf to Hilary Clinton's pantsuit the way we choose to clothe our bodies can carry layer upon layer of meaning Across cultures and throughout history people have used clothing to signify power and status to adorn and beautify even to prop up or dismantle regimes Here explore the best dressed figures in history from Cleopatra to Beyoncé Joan of Arc to RuPaul Some have influenced the fashion of today while some have used their clothing to change the world But all have a sartorial story to tell Entries include Tutankhamun Boudicca Eleanor of Aquitaine Genghis Khan King Philip II of Spain King Louis XIV of France Catherine the Great Marie Antoinette Karl Marx Amelia Earhart Josephine Baker Frida Kahlo Malcolm X Marsha Hunt Beyoncé Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie and many more Self and World Bruin Carleton Christensen,2008-12-18 This book draws upon the phenomenological tradition of Husserl and Heidegger in order to provide an alternative elaboration of John McDowell's thesis that in order to understand how self-conscious subjectivity relates to the world perception must be understood as a genuine unity of spontaneity concept and receptivity intuition This alternative elaboration permits clarification of McDowell's critique of Donald Davidson and development of an alternative conception of perceptual experience giving clear sense to McDowell's claim that self-conscious subjectivity is so inherently in touch with its world that scepticism about the latter must be incoherent It also permits development of a more accurate historically oriented critique of the metaphysics constraining one to construe perceptual experience in ways which misrepresent how self-conscious subjectivity bears upon the world It shows that many of McDowell's meta-philosophical views are implicitly Husserlian and that had McDowell developed them further he would have avoided the paradoxical meta-philosophy he adopts from Wittgenstein In conclusion it intimates the central weakness in Husserl's position which takes one from Husserl to Heidegger The book is written in terms accessible to analytic philosophers and will thus enable them to see the central differences between analytic and phenomenological approaches to intentionality and self-consciousness Radical Fashion and Radical Fashion Innovation Dan Zhang,Anthony Di Benedetto,2014 Radical fashions are defined here as those that may never enter the market at all and exist primarily in runway shows and publicity By contrast radical fashion innovations may be very successful in the marketplace Radical fashions represent a clear break from the old designs as opposed to incremental fashions which are defined as an extension or evolution of the old designs

Fashioning the Afropolis Kerstin Pinther, Kristin Kastner, Basile Ndjio, 2022-07-14 A revelation Reclaiming fashion from its European history Shane White With a focus on sub Saharan Africa Fashioning the Afropolis provides a range of innovative perspectives on global fashion design dress photography and the body in some of the major cities with a focus on Lagos Johannesburg Dakar and Douala It contributes to the ongoing debates around the globalization of fashion and fashion theory by exploring fashion as a genuine urban phenomenon on the continent and among its diasporas To date fashion and city have not been systematically related to each other in the African context and for too long a western centric gaze has dominated scholarship resulting in the perception of Africa as provincial and its visual arts and textile cultures as static and folkloristic This perspective is all the more distorted given Africa s rich sartorial past With a huge number of tailors ready to adapt and renew clothing reshaping garments into contemporary styles and many cities in Africa becoming hot spots for a steadily growing and well connected scene of fashion designers in the past 20 years the time is ripe for a reevaluation and reconsideration of the fashionscapes of Africa Leading scholars offer an updated empirical and theoretical foundation on which to base new and exciting research on sub Saharan fashion challenging perceptions and offering new insights
