Harry Raffal,2021-07-15 The evacuation of Dunkirk has been immortalised in books prints and films narrated as a story of an outnumbered inexperienced RAF defeating the battle hardened Luftwaffe and protecting the evacuation This book revives the historiography by analysing the air operations during the evacuation Raffal draws from German and English sources many for the first time in the context of Operation DYNAMO to argue that both sides suffered a defeat over Dunkirk This work examines the resources and tactics of both sides during DYNAMO and challenges the traditional view that the Luftwaffe held the advantage The success that the Luftwaffe achieved during DYNAMO including halting daylight evacuations on 1 June is evaluated and the supporting role of RAF Bomber and Coastal Command is explored in detail for the first time Concluding that the RAF was not responsible for the Luftwaffe s failure to prevent the evacuation Raffal demonstrates that the reasons lay elsewhere Aerospace Historian ,1978 Victory at Sea Paul Kennedy,2022-04-26 A sweeping lavishly

Anti-Submarine Warfare David Owen,2007-11-15

The submarine was undoubtedly the most potent purely naval weapon of the twentieth century In two world wars enemy underwater campaigns were very nearly successful in thwarting Allied hopes of victory indeed annihilation of Japanese shipping by US Navy submarines is an indicator of what might have been That the submarine was usually defeated is a hugely important story in naval history yet this is the first book to treat the subject as a whole in a readable and accessible manner It concerns individual heroism and devotion to duty but also ingenuity technical advances and originality of tactical thought What developed was an endless battle between forces above and below the surface where a successful innovation by one side eventually produces a counter measure by the other in a lethal struggle for supremacy Development was not a straight line wrong ideas and assumptions led to defeat and disaster
