The Reel Cowboy Buck Rainey, 2014-02-28 Movies and books have romanticized the life of the cowboy. To most the heroes of countless Westerns fall into one of three categories: the strong silent asexual deliverer of damsels in distress, the slick and gaudy guitar strummer, and the virile violent drifter. In truth, real cowboys had little in common with the fictionalized characters of literature and the silver screen. The reel cowboys of yesteryear are recalled in Part One of this work. The make believe West of Gene Autry, Buck Jones, Harry Carey, and many others is contrasted with the real American West. Part Two discusses the many movies based on the writings of Western writers. The works of Zane Grey, Louis L. Amour, Max Brand, Luke Short, Ernest Haycox, and many others have been transformed to the silver screen, often with great success. Next examined are the movies based upon three writers of the great Northwest: James Oliver Curwood, Jack London, and Rex Beach. A concluding section looks at cinema cowboys on the so-called sawdust trail. Will Rogers, Tom Mix, Jack Hoxie were among those reel cowboys who performed in circuses and Wild West shows.

Rebel Raider Raphael Semmes, 1948 Here is as exciting a tale of sea adventure as any piece of fiction. Yet it is even more interesting as the first hand account of one of the most fascinating if least known episodes of the Civil War. Raphael Semmes's cruise in the C.S.S. Sumter. Gosnell's introduction and conclusion furnish welcome information about the life of the man who was reviled as a pirate in the North and worshipped as a hero in the South. Lightning, The History of the 78th Infantry Division (Divisional Series), Division Historical Committee, 2018-12-12 The history of the 78th Infantry Division in World War II as in World War I is a record of heroic achievement, mission accomplished, and outstanding service to the United States of America. War as such is opposed to American principles and ideals; nevertheless, in time of emergency, our citizens turn from peaceful pursuits to undertake protection of their country with steadfast determination. This was the situation when in Aug 1942 I took command of the Lightning Division at reactivation Our first mission was to train thousands of men for combat Wherever America was fighting her enemies our men saw action Then in the spring of 1943 the Division began training as a unit Teamwork leadership and courage were the foundations on which we built with work exercise and maneuver After grave losses through transfer of personnel the Division completed its tests and embarked for Europe in Oct 1944 Within two months we had assaulted and breached the formidable Siegfried Line in Germany Rollesbroich Simmerath Kesternich Konzen Schmidt the Schwammenauel Dam the Cologne Plain the Ludendorff Bridge the Remagen Bridgehead and the Ruhr Pocket are names that will ever recall the gallantry of Lightning men Compilation of the history of a combat unit is a daring task Too great a part of a unit s history lies buried with the men who made it The deeds of one man on an unnamed hill the actions of a squad fighting for an isolated farmstead have decided many battles By the nature of war however these actions remain unrecorded For this reason our history is the Story of the Lightning Team of all who wore the Lightning Patch in a winning fight from reactivation at Camp Butner N C in 1942 through our last combat mission at Wuppertal Germany 17 Apr 1945 and thereafter Maj Gen Edwin P Parker Jr
