The Invention of God in Indigenous Societies James Cox,2014-09-19 Indigenous societies around the world have been historically disparaged by European explorers colonial officials and Christian missionaries Nowhere was this more evident than in early descriptions of indigenous religions as savage primitive superstitious and fetishistic Liberal intellectuals both indigenous and colonial reacted to this by claiming that before indigenous peoples ever encountered Europeans they all believed in a Supreme Being The Invention of God in Indigenous Societies argues that by alleging that God can be located at the core of pre Christian cultures this claim effectively invents a tradition which only makes sense theologically if God has never left himself without a witness Examining a range of indigenous religions from North America Africa and Australasia the Shona of Zimbabwe the Rainbow Spirit Theology in Australia the Yupiit of Alaska and the M ori of New Zealand the book argues that the interests of indigenous societies are best served by carefully describing their religious beliefs and practices using historical and phenomenological methods just as would be done in the study of any world religion

Habel, Shirley Wurst, 2000-08-01 A series of articles by scholars from around the world reading the story of Earth in Genesis in the light of the ecojustice principles enunciated in Volume One Readings from the Perspective of Earth These readings uncover how Earth may be valued or de valued given a voice or denied a voice dominated or served depending on the orientation of the text In Genesis 1 for example the intrinsic worth of Earth is highlighted in the revealing of Earth's presence but negated when humans are given the right to subdue it In Genesis 9 the text begins with the Earth community terrified by and alienated from humans but ends with all the Earth Community and Earth itself bound together equally in a covenant

Readings from the Perspective of Earth Norman C. Habel, 2000-08-01 This volume introduces the hermeneutical approach and ecojustice principles developed by the Earth Bible project team Following this approach biblical scholars illustrate how a reading of the biblical text from the perspective of Earth yields fresh insights Though the text may seem anthropocentric these studies are able to retrieve evidence of the living voice and intrinsic value of Earth It is an approach that can be harmonized with other recognized critical approaches to the Bible from historical criticism to ecofeminist criticism The texts chosen are from many parts of the Bible Psalms Prophets Gospels Romans Revelation and the intertestamental literature Tobit and Wisdom of Solomon COMING HOME: The Genesis Creation Story Avi ben Mordechai, 2019-01-31 An event of theological time travel back to the beginning back to the biblical creation story in Genesis chapters 1-3 We will learn some Hebraic details about a larger than life seven day Messianic redemption plan We will encounter a multi dimensional world of reality and metaphor We will come to learn that the biblical creation story is a detailed Hebraic narrative about the Creation referred to in the Hebrew text of Exodus 3:14-15 as YHWH Elohim and his deep desire for a relationship with each of us that after all the creation was plunged into a deep spiritual darkness he the Creator named in Exodus 3:14-15 was the one that came to set us free from our spiritual captivity because we had no power to set ourselves free Genesis chapters 1-3 is an extraordinary historical riches to rags to riches story unlike anything that one can even begin to imagine Learn Hebraic definitions for faith hope love holiness heaven earth and other theological ideas often

Cox s most important writings on a phenomenology of Indigenous Religions into one volume with a new introduction and conclusion by the author Cox has consistently exemplified phenomenological methods by applying them to his own field studies among Indigenous Religions principally in Zimbabwe and Alaska but also in Australia and New Zealand Included in this collection are his articles in which he defines what he means by the category religion and how this informs his precise meaning of the classification Indigenous Religions These theoretical considerations are always illustrated clearly and concisely by specific studies of Indigenous Religions and their dynamic interaction with contemporary political and social circumstances This collection demonstrates the continued relevance of the phenomenological method in the study of religions by presenting the method as dynamic and adaptable to contemporary social contexts and as responsive to intellectual critiques of the method De-colonising the Biblical Narrative, Volume 1 Norman Habel,2022-09-01 De colonising the Biblical Narrative Volume One represents a landmark in contemporary hermeneutics In this volume we take into account our colonial history and develop a de colonising hermeneutic which we employ to identify the colonial editing of the text and to retrieve precolonial narratives with which First Nations peoples of Australia may resonate In the first volume we attempt to de colonise the narratives of Genesis 1 11 and retrieve pre colonial legends that are comparable to First Nations ancestral narratives In Genesis One for example we retrieve a Primal Land Narrative in which the primordial ground is born comes to life creates life and is named Land by the Creator Spirit As we work through the traditions of Genesis 1 11 we also discern colonial additions like the mandate to dominate associated with the Imago Dei in Genesis 1 26 28 At the close of the analysis of each narrative we include the response of First Nations Australia thereby illustrating not only the significance of our finding but also the relevance for First Nations peoples The Body in Religion Yudit Kornberg Greenberg,2017-12-14 The Body in Religion Cross Cultural Perspectives surveys influential ways in which the body is imagined and deployed in religious practices and beliefs across the globe Filling the gap for an up to date and comparative approach to theories and practices of the body in religion this book explores the cultural influences on embodiment and their implications for religious institutions and spirituality Examples are drawn from religions such as Jainism Confucianism Daoism Shintoism Paganism Aboriginal African and Native American religions in addition to the five major religions of the world Topics covered include Gender and sexuality Female modesty and dress codes Circumcision and menstruation rituals God language and erotic desire Death dying and burial rites Disciplining the body through prayer yoga and meditation Feasting and fasting rituals Illustrated throughout with over 60 images The Body in Religion is designed for course use in religious studies as well as interdisciplinary courses across the humanities and the social sciences Further online resources include a sample syllabus The Rainbow's Promise: A Sign of God's Covenant Ahmed Musa,2024-12-11 Experience the beauty and hope of God's faithfulness in The Rainbow's Promise A Sign of God's Covenant This heartfelt retelling recounts the aftermath of the great flood as Noah and his family emerge from the ark to a transformed world and a divine assurance of mercy and love Witness the profound moment when God places a radiant rainbow in the sky promising never again to destroy the earth by flood This covenant symbolizes His enduring commitment to creation and serves as a timeless reminder of hope renewal and grace Perfect for readers of all ages The Rainbow's Promise is a story of restoration and divine love that resonates with anyone seeking assurance of God's presence in the storms of life A touching reminder that even in times of trial God's promises shine bright Edward Burnett Tylor, Religion and Culture Paul-François Tremlett,Graham Harvey,Liam T. Sutherland,2017-09-21 Through revisiting and challenging what we think we know about the work of Edward Burnett Tylor a founding figure of anthropology this volume explores new connections and insights that link Tylor and his work to present concerns in new and important ways At the publication of Primitive Culture in 1871 Tylor was at the centre of anthropological research on religion and culture but today Tylor's position in the anthropological canon is rarely acknowledged Edward Burnett Tylor Religion and Culture does not claim to present a definitive new Tylor The old Tylor the founder of British anthropology the definer of religion the intellectualist the evolutionist the liberal the utilitarian the avatar of white Protestant rationalism the Tylor of the canon remains Part I explore debates and contexts of Tylor's lifetime while the chapters in Part II explore a series of new Tylors including Tylor the ethnographer and Tylor the Spiritualist re writing the legacy of the founder of anthropology in the process Edward Burnett Tylor Religion and Culture is essential reading for

Twentieth-Century Theologians Philip Kennedy,2010-01-30 One needs to be a lunatic to become a Christian the 19th century Danish philosopher Soren Kierkegaard once observed Had he lived in the 20th century he might have discerned even more of an obstacle to faith For during the last century the human condition changed more rapidly than during any previous era taking that condition far away from the historical circumstances in which Christianity was born In his new book Philip Kennedy explores the ways Christian theologians of the 20th century tried to live a productive religious life in a world overtaken by massive upheaval and innovation The book is distinctive in a number of respects First it differs from other surveys of theology by adopting a biographical method examining the lives of its subjects in historical context Second it is more progressive than its competitors covering many theologians other than white male professors especially women who have worked outside the academy or on the margins of the churches Third it is international focusing on theologians in all the continents of the world rather than just Europe or North America Fourth it makes no assumptions that its readers are religious or that theology is uniquely credible There is a need for a sensitive new textbook reassessing the subject in the light of modern concerns and scepticism about religion This book meets that need "Spirit" Peggy D'Amato,2018-08-25 This is a mystical story about mans best friend his closest companion his dog This is a touching story about a dog no one wanted to buy A tiny black and white phantom poodle doggie in the window but not the show window She was at the back of the pet store in a small cage with a glass front She was covered in shredded black and white newspapers which made it appear the cage was empty This is an amazing story about an amazing dog that understood English Spanish Greek and some Italian A dog with a certificate of pedigree of five generations A dog with a sharp mind extensive vocabulary an extraordinary fast runner and the ability to love people unconditionally A dog who loved working at rest homes private homes and hospice care as an invited guest This is a story about how a dog named Spirit overcame the loss of her hearing as well as 90 percent of eyesight but never her vision to still help others as she has a great nose for smelling A high spirited companion with a magical ability to feel thoughts before and after she crossed the Rainbow Bridge This magical mystical story will touch your heart Its a story many will relate to about their own companions they have today or a companion that also crossed over the Rainbow Bridge Companions who will forever provide magical memories of love This is a book every pet owner needs to have in their home for future reference

An Inconvenient Text Norm Habel,2012-12-31 The Bible is an inconvenient text There are passages that are grey rather than green These passages depict God or humans destroying or devaluing parts of creation What if we dare to read these grey texts from the perspective of the victims Earth and the domains of Earth How then would we relate to these de valued parts of creation And how does this Gospel contribute to resolving this dilemma Norm Habel has taught Old Testament in Australia the USA and India He has written major commentaries on the Book of Job and is editor of the Sheffield Press Earth Bible Series
