 Journal of College Student Development      Modern Occult Rhetoric Joshua Gunn,2011-01-28 A broadly interdisciplinary study of the pervasive secrecy in America cultural political and religious discourse The occult has traditionally been understood as the study of secrets of the practice of mysticism or magic This book broadens our understanding of the occult by treating it as a rhetorical phenomenon tied to language and symbols and more central to American culture than is commonly assumed Joshua Gunn approaches the occult as an idiom examining the ways in which acts of textual criticism and interpretation are occultic in nature as evident in practices as diverse as academic scholarship Freemasonry and television production Gunn probes for instance the ways in which jargon employed by various social and professional groups creates barriers and fosters secrecy From the theory wars of cultural studies to the Satanic Panic that swept the national mass media in the late 1980s and early 1990s Gunn shows how the paradox of a hidden buried or secret meaning that cannot be expressed in language appears time and time again in Western culture These recurrent patterns Gunn argues arise from a generalized popular anxiety about language and its limitations Ultimately Modern Occult Rhetoric demonstrates the indissoluble relationship between language secrecy and publicity and the centrality of suspicion in our daily lives      The Long Life of Magical Objects Allegra Iafate,2020-01-17 This book explores a series of powerful artifacts associated with King Solomon via legendary or extracanonical textual sources Tracing their cultural resonance throughout history art historian Allegra Iafate delivers exciting insights into these objects and interrogates the ways in which magic manifests itself at a material level Each chapter focuses on a different Solomonic object a ring used to control demons a mysterious set of bottles that constrain evil forces an endless knot or seal with similar properties the shamir known for its supernatural ability to cut through stone and a flying carpet that can bring the sitter anywhere he desires Taken together these chapters constitute a study on the reception of the figure of Solomon but they are also cultural biographies of these magical objects and their inherent aesthetic morphological and technical qualities Thought provoking and engaging Iafate s study shows how ancient magic artifacts live on in our imagination in items such as Sauron s ring of power Aladdin s lamp and the magic carpet It will appeal to historians of art religion folklore and literature      The Lead Books of Granada E. Drayson,2016-01-13 Hailed as early Christian texts as important as the Dead Sea Scrolls yet condemned by the Vatican as Islamic heresies the Lead books of Granada written on discs of lead and unearthed on a Granadan hillside weave a mysterious tale of duplicity and daring set in the religious crucible of sixteenth century Spain This book evaluates the cultural status and importance of these polyvalent ambiguous artefacts which embody many of the dualities and paradoxes inherent in the racial and religious dilemmas of Early Modern Spain Using the words of key individuals and set against the background of conflict between Spanish Christians and Moriscos in the late fifteen hundreds The Lead Books of Granada tells a story of resilient resistance and creative ingenuity in the face of impossibly powerful negative forces a resistance embodied by a small group of courageous idealistic men who lived a double life in Granada just before the expulsion of the Moriscos

England Frank Klaassen, 2019-07-26 This volume presents editions of two fascinating anonymous and untitled manuscripts of magic produced in Elizabethan England the Antiphoner Notebook and the Boxgrove Manual Frank Klaassen uses these texts which he argues are representative of the overwhelming majority of magical practitioners to explain how magic changed during this period and why these developments were crucial to the formation of modern magic The Boxgrove Manual is a work of learned ritual magic that synthesizes material from Henry Cornelius Agrippa the Fourth Book of Occult Philosophy Heptameron and various medieval conjuring works The Antiphoner Notebook concerns the common magic of treasure hunting healing and protection blending medieval conjuring and charm literature with materials drawn from Reginald Scot's famous anti magic work Discoverie of Witchcraft Klaassen painstakingly traces how the scribes who created these two manuscripts adapted and transformed their original sources In so doing he demonstrates the varied and subtle ways in which the Renaissance the Reformation new currents in science the birth of printing and vernacularization changed the practice of magic Illuminating the processes by which two sixteenth century English scribes went about making a book of magic this volume provides insight into the wider intellectual culture surrounding the practice of magic in the early modern period

Images at Work David Morgan, 2018-01-02 Images can be studied in many ways as symbols displays of artistic genius adjuncts to texts or naturally occurring phenomena like reflections and dreams Each of these approaches is justified by the nature of the image in question as well as the way viewers engage with it But images are often something more when they perform in ways that exhibit a capacity to act independent of human will Images come alive they move us to action calm us reveal the power of the divine change the world around us In these instances we need an alternative model for exploring what is at work one that recognizes the presence of images as objects that act on us Building on his previous innovative work in visual and religious studies David Morgan creates a new framework for understanding how the human mind can be enchanted by images in Images at Work In carefully crafted arguments Morgan proposes that images are special kinds of objects fashioned and recognized by human beings for their capacity to engage us From there he demonstrates that enchantment as described is not a violation of cosmic order but a very natural way that the mind animates the world around it His groundbreaking study outlines the deeply embodied process by which humans create culture by endowing places things and images with power and agency These various agents human and non human material geographic and spiritual become nodes in the web of relationships thus giving meaning to images and to human life Marrying network theory with cutting edge work in visual studies and connecting the visual and bodily technologies employed by the ancient Greeks and Romans to secular icons like Che Guevara Abraham Lincoln and Mao Images at Work will be transformative for those curious about why images seem to have a power of us in ways we can't always describe
