Metalworking through History Ana M. Lopez, 2009-04-30 Metalworking Through History provides a comprehensive historic overview of the subject of metalworking while exploring it within its cultural context It is written from the perspective that the crafting of objects in metal is a unique way of understanding a particular time and culture As a broad encyclopedia of metalworking it allows the reader to view the different societies and periods that produced work in this medium as part of a global interrelated practice Comprised of over sixty entries on relevant time periods cultures makers and processes the book is a much needed general reference text in the survey of this craft The subjects span all the major metalworking periods and peoples from the rituals of African iron smelting to the twentieth century studio movement Outstanding individual makers are highlighted to give additional insight into the times at which they were active Furthermore the materials and techniques used in the act of metalworking are clearly explained in terms that are easily understood by a practitioner with tacit knowledge of the medium Suggested further readings and cross references allow for the expansion of research and additional study It is an excellent first resource for understanding the concepts and terminology of the ancient and pervasive craft of metalworking Volume includes eight pages of color plates and black and white photos throughout Metalworking Through History provides a comprehensive historic overview of the subject of metalworking while exploring it within its cultural context It is written from the perspective that the crafting of objects in metal is a unique way of understanding a particular time and culture As a broad encyclopedia of metalworking it allows the reader to view the different societies and periods that produced work in this medium as part of a global interrelated practice Comprised of over sixty entries on relevant time periods cultures makers and processes the book is a much needed general reference text in the survey of this craft The subjects span all the major metalworking periods and peoples from the rituals of African iron smelting to the twentieth century studio movement Outstanding individual makers are highlighted to give additional insight into the times at which they were active Furthermore the materials and techniques used in the act of metalworking are clearly explained in terms that are easily understood by a practitioner with tacit knowledge of the medium Suggested further readings and cross references allow for the expansion of research and additional study It is an excellent first resource for understanding the concepts and terminology of the ancient and pervasive craft of metalworking Volume includes eight pages of color plates and black and white photos throughout Art Deco Marianne Brandt Chinese Dark Ages Enamel Engraving Georg Jensen Judaica Metals and their Alloys Native American Plating and Leaf Renaissance June Schwartz Soldering South American Samuel Yellin River Variability and Complexity Stanley A. Schumm, 2007-08-27

Rivers differ among themselves and through time An individual river can vary significantly downstream changing its dimensions and pattern dramatically over a short distance If hydrology and hydraulics were the primary controls on the morphology and behaviour of large rivers we would expect long reaches of rivers to maintain characteristic and relatively uniform morphologies In fact this is not the case the variability of large rivers indicates that other important factors are involved River Variability and Complexity presents an interesting approach to the understanding of river variability It provides examples of river variability and explains the reasons for them including fluvial response to human activities Understanding the mechanisms of variability is important for geomorphologists geologists river engineers and sedimentologists as they attempt to interpret ancient fluvial deposits or anticipate river behaviour at different locations and through time This book provides an excellent background for graduates researchers and professionals After Dark Nancy Gonlin, Meghan E Strong, 2022-08-15 After Dark explores the experience of nighttime within ancient urban settings Contributors present material evidence related to how ancient people manipulated and confronted darkness and night in urban landscapes advancing our knowledge of the archaeology of cities the archaeology of darkness and night and lychnology the study of ancient lighting devices Sensory archaeology focuses on the sensual experience of the nocturnal environment the sights sounds smells tastes and feel of an ancient city and the multi faceted stimuli that diverse urban populations experienced in the dark Contributors investigate night work for example standing guard or pursuing nocturnal trades and nightlife such as gambling at Chaco Canyon They also examine how urban architecture infrastructure and the corresponding lighting were inextricably involved in enabling nighttime pursuits and signaling social status The subjects of the night darkness and illumination taken together form a comprehensive framework for analyzing city life After Dark embraces night as a conceptual lens through which to view the material and visual cultures of the ancient world and in doing so demonstrates a wealth of activities behaviors and beliefs that took place between dusk and dawn This perspective greatly enriches the understanding of urban life and its evolution and has much to offer archaeologists in deepening an examination of complexity and inequality This volume will be of interest to any scholar or student of the past who is interested in urban activities and the significance of the night in urban settings Contributors Susan M Alt J Antonio Ochatoma Cabrera Martha researchers to present their research These proceedings for CREXIII represent the wide range of themes that were offered by delegates during the conference and cover all periods of Egyptian history from Predynastic skeletal analysis through to Egyptology during the Islamic Middle Ages These twelve papers include gender studies analysis of Egyptian festivals revisiting of chronological models archaeological reanalysis of ancient landscapes as well as social historical and linguistic studies allowing a new appraisal of many aspects of Egyptian culture and history River Culture UNESCO,UNESCO Office in Beijing,2023-01-05 Sand Dunes of the Northern Hemisphere: Distribution, Formation, Migration and Management Lu Qi,Mahesh K. Gaur,Victor R. Squires,2023-12-15 Volume 2 of the book Sand Dunes of the Northern Hemisphere is sub titled Characteristics Dynamics and Provenance of Sand Dunes in the Northern Hemisphere It brings together a vast body of information and insight into sand dune and desert systems from North Asia Central Asia North Africa and the Middle East Chapters from the Russian Federation include studies on dune systems within the permafrost zone and there is a case study from temperate zone dune system in coastal Japan Volume 2 Characteristics Dynamics and Provenance of Sand Dunes in the Northern Hemisphere of 16 chapters in three Parts focusses on Saharan Africa Egypt and Middle East and gives attention to sand mobility and encroachment with case studies from a number of countries where these matters are of concern We also include chapters on the remote dunes in the permafrost zone and in the hyper arid deserts of Iran Case studies are used to highlight the characteristics of dunes and their interaction with humans in several widely divergent settings Volume 2 concludes with some musing on the value of study of the past as key to the future and speculates on what the future might hold in the light of a warmer and drier Earth and a rise in sea level that threaten large tracts of low lying land with marine incursions and destruction from storm surge PART 4 Sand Mobility and Encroachment The seven chapters in this Part examine the real world impact of sand encroachment and dune migration on people and their economic activities and the health welfare and financial implications related to destruction of infrastructure including human habitations PART 5 Sand Dune Landscapes Distribution Formation and Management Seven Case studies from several geographic regions in Africa the Middle East north east Asia are presented here to demonstrate the underlying mechanisms in dune formation and the diverse approaches to their management Human impacts such as sand mining tourism development combine with natural forces like climate variability to challenge the realization of an optimum management strategy PART 6 Concluding Thoughts Coping with an Unknown Future from a Little known Past The two chapters in Part 6 have special roles We are privileged to publish new research findings that are summarized here in Chapter 38 from extensive and detailed work conducted in the Kyzyl Kum and Karakum sand seas of Central Asia There is a strong belief that further study of the little known past such as revealed in this study could unlock clues as to what a future Earth might look like This leads on to speculation in Chapter 39 about the implications of what we already know about global change not only climate change and the impact of the Anthropocene on the dune systems both inland and coastal Sea level rise marine incursions and an increase in extreme weather events will affect dune systems and sand seas on the Northern Hemisphere and beyond
