A Roads Scholar Ivan E. Young, 2004-02-22 The following stories have been out of memory for so many years that minor errors may occur However each episode is based on truth but may be at times spiced up to prevent boredom Dizzy Dean once said It ain't braggin' if you done it That was okay for Dizzy to say As you read this documentary you may think with good reason that some of the escapades don't fall into the category of bragging material In the area of Ontario around Georgian Bay Grey County sprawls in an expanse encompassing the Blue Mountains and is bordered on the north by Georgian Bay The principal rivers in Grey County are the Beaver the Saugeen the Mad and the Sauble The county is also endowed with numerous lakes The main industry as in any other rural area is farming Many areas of Grey County are remote and difficult to access The Third Line of Osprey Township in the dirty thirties was about as remote as it gets It was on the Third Line in nineteen thirty two that I was born Ivan Earl Young on a stormy December day CD-ROMs in Print, 2003

The Funniest Cop Stories Ever Scott Baker,2009-01-01 Cops are the people who see and hear it all They work at one of the world s most dangerous jobs but it s also one of the most entertaining When their lives are at risk and even when they aren t cops encounter constant weirdness and stupidity in human behavior The Funniest Cop Stories Ever collects the strangest most amusing stories about stupid crooks bungled crimes and station house banter A true look at what life is like behind the badge the tales in The Funniest Cop Stories Ever were collected by real life ex New York City policeman Scott Baker and coauthor Tom Philbin Anecdotes are told by the real life cops who experienced them and include A foot chase after a dwarf who karate kicked his girlfriend s door and assaulted her while wearing a tuxedo and carrying a violin case A beggar who ended people s pay phone calls so he could demand their extra spare change A narcotics bust on a guy who claimed the crack cocaine and his pants didn t belong to him Life in Oakhurst Lori Howard,2011-06-16 Writing little snippets about my daily life is nothing more than trying to remain connected to people I care about most How often do we cruise through life not relishing even the tiniest of successes learning opportunities and pleasures much less sharing those chosen moments with people that support and even look forward to our next adventure in life 2002 was the year of loss for my husband and I Not all of our losses were negative between the two of us we lost over 100 lbs Once youve experienced the type of losses we did during this year you begin to take stock in your values dreams and priorities So in an attempt to redefi ne ourselves we sold our fully paid for San Diego based home and moved to a one bedroom two story beyond ugly green get away pad on a ten acre parcel on Deadwood Mountain Makes me want to keep an eye out for Outlaw Rustlers A perfectly reasonable diversion for two city folks with the belief that bears belong in the zoo and lattes should be available on every street corner Why not uproot the declawed cats and never consider asking ourselves the question So what is the difference between septic and sewer What we found are the experiences that make us smile question what were we thinking and somehow some way appreciate our new life through the absurd and benign evolution of every day events To add to the mayhem we decided to become innkeepers and pool our resources together to build our own little slice of heaven as we create the perfect Bed and Breakfast It didnt really matter that I never met a bed I ever wanted to make up or the thought of scrubbing toilets leaving me a little disgruntled It was the idea of living in paradise and sharing it with great people along the way So here we are sharing a few snippets of Life in Oakhurst Playing Oppression Mary Flanagan,Mikael

Jakobsson,2023-02-28 A striking analysis of popular board games roots in imperialist reasoning and why the future of play depends on reckoning with it Board games conjure up images of innocuously enriching entertainment family game nights childhood pastimes cooperative board games centered around resource management and strategic play Yet in Playing Oppression Mary Flanagan and Mikael Jakobsson apply the incisive frameworks of postcolonial theory to a broad historical survey of board games to show how these seemingly benign entertainments reinforce the logic of imperialism Through this lens the commercialized version of Snakes and Ladders takes shape as the British Empire's distortion of Gyan Chaupar an Indian game of spiritual knowledge and early twentieth century trading games that f t ed French colonialism are exposed for how they conveniently sanitized its brutality while also relying on crudely racist imagery These games most explicitly abhorrent features may no longer be visible but their legacy still lingers in the contemporary Eurogame tendency to exalt and incentivize cycles of exploration expansion exploitation and extermination An essential addition to any player's bookshelf Playing Oppression deftly analyzes this insidious violence and proposes a path forward with board games that challenge colonialist thinking and embrace a much broader cultural imagination

Board Games as Media Paul Booth, 2021-01-14

Leading expert Paul Booth explores the growth in popularity of board games today and unpacks what it means to read a board game What does a game communicate How do games play us And how do we decide which games to play and which are just wastes of cardboard With little scholarly research in this still emerging field Board Games as Media underscores the importance of board games in the ever evolving world of media

Scholars' Mates and Grand Masters David

Yarwood, 2023-09-23 What makes this chess book different I believe this is the first book of its kind about chess So many focus on the best games or openings middlegames and endgames to study What few books mention is players early chess experience which for many is at school Grandmasters and international masters don't just appear by magic They all learn their craft from a young age after being shown the moves There are pupils at UK schools now who already have IM norms and thousands of others playing for fun or competitively This book focuses on the chess history of a British state school which celebrates its 140 year anniversary in 2023 King Edward's Camp Hill School for Boys in Birmingham Chess at its twin school for Girls is also covered The chess schooldays of two of this country's greatest players Hugh Alexander and Tony Miles are discussed since they went to a school regularly played by Camp Hill Other prodigies like Malcolm Baker Ameet Ghazi Peggy Wood Sabrina Chevannes and Sophie Tidman are introduced as well as a legion of enthusiastic pupils who played for their school county or country Thirty games are included Stories of two pupils who founded famous chess clubs are among many highlights as well as the discovery that the school has educated its own International Master This year Camp Hill played in the finals of the ECF Team Chess Challenge Team Problem Solving and National U19 School Championships continuing a history of playing at the highest levels over time beating schools such as Eton College and Manchester Grammar in national championships At a time when the British PM Rishi Sunak has announced 500 000 of funding to improve chess in state schools this book may inform and help inspire the next generation Besides the pupils the Scholars' Mates part of the title the valuable role of teachers the Grand Masters is highlighted throughout Besides money time and enthusiasm are needed to foster success But the title is not a total misnomer since a noteworthy pupil played the moves of Scholar's Mate in a prestigious tournament he organised featuring several grandmasters Many Old Boys including famous alumni teachers and headmasters have contributed to this history book which deviates from the main line occasionally to present an informative and humorous account of both this ordinary and extraordinary British school Camp Hill The author himself was chess captain at the school and the third pupil to start a chess club Anyone connected to chess at the school can join Camp Hill Old Edwardian's chess club on chess.com to play study the games in this book or chat Horn Man Laurie Palazzolo, 2003 Detroit and its strong Polish community share in America's rich history of Polish music and customs This work documents that history and details the development of the Polish American musicians in Detroit who became known as polka musicians even though their music was very diversified The Publishers Weekly, 1999 Medical Examination of Schools and Scholars Theophilus Nicholas Kelynack, 1910 Schulhygiene Sires and Dams of Stakes Winners, 1925-85, 1986

Andrei Codrescu and the Myth of America Kirby Olson, 2014-09-17 This is one of those times a time choked in the weeds of academic and civilian formalism To put it mildly most of what we see in print in North America is unbearably trivial and singularly devoid of courage Andrei Codrescu The Disappearance of the Outside Known to the general public as a radio commentator on National Public Radio Romanian born essayist and poet Andrei Codrescu has developed a variety of voices throughout his career Transylvanian humorist on NPR surrealist poet in his many volumes of poetry academic essayist in his philosophical writings and historical novelist Taking seemingly everyday events in seemingly mundane places Codrescu is able to link the random details into a larger whole leading his readers and listeners to conclusions very different from those they first imagined This work explores Codrescu's writings and how they are a part of the surrealist tradition It examines the ways in which his poetry essays and novels are influenced by his upbringing in Communist Romania and the liberal attitudes he encountered upon moving to the United States and draws comparisons between Codrescu and other surrealists An interview with the author is also included Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism Stefan Herbrechter, Ivan Callus, Manuela Rossini, Marija Grech, Megen de Bruin-Molé, Christopher John Müller, 2022-11-28 Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism is a major reference work on the paradigm emerging from the challenges to humanism humanity and the human posed by the erosion of the traditional demarcations between the human and nonhuman This handbook surveys and speculates on the ways in which the posthumanist paradigm emerged transformed and might further develop across the humanities With its focus on the posthuman as a figure on posthumanism as a social discourse and on posthumanisation as an on going historical and ontological process the volume highlights the relationship between the humanities and sciences The essays engage with posthumanism in connection with subfields like the environmental humanities health humanities animal studies and disability studies The book also traces the historical representations and understanding of posthumanism across time Additionally the contributions address genre and forms such as autobiography games art film museums and topics such as climate change speciesism anthropocentrism and biopolitics to name a few This handbook considers posthumanism's impact across disciplines and areas of study What the past did for us Adam Hart-Davis, 2011-01-31 Adam Hart Davis one of the nation's favourite TV presenters returns to our screens with a tour through the Top Ten developments of each of the great civilisations of the past From the Egyptians to the Romans Babylonians to the Arabs Adam takes us on an epic history of the world looking at some of the great legacies left to us by ancient cultures What the Past Did For Us accompanies a major 9 part new format autumn show in which Adam is the anchorman who leads us through the history of inventions while testing some of these in the studio The accompanying book is an entertainingly written history of ancient cultures capturing Adam's enthusiasm for the subject Adam tells the story of the Chinese inventors who came up with the mariners compass paper money and gunpowder right through to the Ancient Indians who according to Einstein taught us how to count as well as giving us the 12 month calendar year and 7 day week
