Road Movie:

The Road Movie Book Steven Cohan, Ina Rae Hark, 2002-01-04 The Road Movie Book is the first comprehensive study of an enduring but ever changing Hollywood genre its place in American culture and its legacy to world cinema The road and the cinema both flourished in the twentieth century as technological advances brought motion pictures to a mass audience and the mass produced automobile opened up the road to the ordinary American When Jean Baudrillard equated modern American culture with space speed cinema technology he could just as easily have added that the road movie is its supreme emblem The contributors explore how the road movie has confronted and represented issues of nationhood sexuality gender class and race They map the generic terrain of the road movie trace its evolution on American television as well as on the big screen from the 1930s through the 1980s and finally consider road movies that go off the road departing from the US landscape or travelling on the margins of contemporary American culture Movies discussed include Road classics such as It Happened One Night The Grapes of Wrath The Wizard of Oz and the Bob Hope Bing Crosby Road to films 1960 s reworkings of the road movie in Easy Rider and Bonnie and Clyde Russ Meyer s road movies from Motorpsycho to Faster Pussycat Kill Kill Contemporary hits such as Paris Texas Rain Man Natural Born Killers and Thelma and Louise The road movie Australian style from Mad Max to the Adventures of Priscilla Queen of the Desert The Road Movie Neil Archer, 2016-01-12 Though often seen as one of America s native cinematic genres the road movie has lent itself to diverse international contexts and inspired a host of filmmakers As analyzed in this study from its most familiar origins in Hollywood the road movie has become a global film practice whether as a vehicle for exploring the relationship between various national contexts and American cinema as a means of narrating different national and continental histories or as a form of individual filmmaking expression Beginning with key films from Depression era Hollywood and the New Hollywood of the late 1960s and then considering its wider effect on world cinemas this volume maps the development and adaptability of an enduring genre studying iconic films along the way The French Road Movie Neil Archer, 2012 The traditionally American genre of the road movie has been explored and reconfigured in the French context since the later 1960s Comparative in its approach this book studies the inter relationship between American and French culture and cinemas and in the process considers and challenges histories of the road movie It combines film history with film theory methodologies analysing transformations in social political and film industrial contexts alongside changing perspectives on the meaning and possibilities of film At once chronological and thematic in structure The French Road Movie provides in each chapter a comprehensive introduction to key themes emerging from the genre in the French context liberty identity and citizenship masculinity femininity border crossing followed by detailed innovative and often revisionist readings of the chosen films Through these readings the author justifies the place of the road genre within French cinema histories and reinvigorates this often neglected and misunderstood area of study Road Movies Devin Orgeron, 2008-04-09 Road Movies engages with two foundational twentieth century technologies cinematic and automotive It is a book about road movies a genre burdened by its own seductiveness It is also however a book about images of human mobility more generally and the social function those images have served From Eadweard Muybridge's pre cinematic experiments through contemporary films by David Lynch and Abbas Kiarostami road movies are part of a larger imagistic tradition focused on the social costs of modernity and the consequences of a culture moving often quite rapidly away from the stabilizing structures of community and communication The Latin American Road Movie Verónica Garibotto, Jorge Pérez, 2016-07-28 This volume explores the ways films made by Latin American directors and or co produced in Latin American countries have employed the road movie genre to address the reconfiguration of the geographical sociopolitical economic and cultural landscape of Latin America Road Movies D. Orgeron, 2007-12-09 Road Movies engages with two foundational twentieth century technologies cinematic and automotive It is a book about road movies a genre burdened by its own seductiveness It is also however a book about images of human mobility more generally and the social function those images have served Lost Highways, Embodied Travels: The Road Movie in American Experimental Film and Video Kornelia Boczkowska, 2023-02-06 Often identified as one of the most genuine and enduring American film genres the road movie has never been explored in the context of experimental filmmaking To fill this gap Lost Highways Embodied Travels provides the first book length study of over eighty unique and often obscure films and videos and situates them within the corporeal turn in American avant garde cinema so far mostly associated with body genres and sexually explicit films Drawing on unpublished archival materials the book offers a fresh take on both past and current practices of the experimental film community for scholars students makers and film buffs The Latin American (Counter-) Road Movie and Ambivalent Modernity Nadia Lie, 2017-02-09 This book offers a comprehensive and systematic overview of the flourishing genre of the contemporary Latin American road movie of which Diarios de motocicleta and Y tu mamá también are only the best known examples It offers the first systematic survey of the genre and explains why the road movie is key to contemporary Latin American cinema and society Proposing the new category of counter road movie and paying special attention to the genre's intricate relationship to modernity Nadia Lie charts the variety of the road movie through films by both renowned and emerging filmmakers The Latin American Counter Road Movie and Ambivalent Modernity engages with ongoing debates on transnationalism and takes the reader along a wide range of topics from exile to undocumented migration from tourism to internally displaced people The Figure of the Road Christopher D. Morris, 2007 The Figure of the Road examines the metaphor of the road way or path in works of representative humanities disciplines literature religion philosophy visual art popular culture to show how writers and artists anticipated the dilemma known to contemporary deconstruction as the aporia or pathless place This tradition exposes the solution advocated in Derrida's late thought the search for the tout autre as a negative theology and suppression of writing's freedom to allegorize these insoluble problems The Figure of the Road concludes by tracing the bleak Beckett like implications of this freedom for curriculum and ethics in a world understood as wholly figural

Infrastructural Brutalism Michael Truscello, 2020-09-01 How drowned town literature road movies energy landscape photography and death train narratives represent the brutality of industrial infrastructures In this book Michael Truscello looks at the industrial infrastructure not as an invisible system of connectivity and mobility that keeps capitalism humming in the background but as a manufactured miasma of despair toxicity and death Truscello terms this infrastructural brutality a formulation that not only alludes to the historical nexus of infrastructure and the concrete aesthetic of Brutalist architecture but also describes the ecological political and psychological brutality of industrial infrastructures The Art of Movies Nicolae Sfetcu, 2014-05-06 Movie is considered to be an important art form films entertain educate enlighten and inspire audiences Film is a term that encompasses motion pictures as individual projects as well as in metonymy the field in general The origin of the name comes from the fact that photographic film also called filmstock has historically been the primary medium for recording and displaying motion pictures Many other terms exist motion pictures or just pictures or picture the silver screen photoplays the cinema picture shows flicks and commonly movies

Fatih Akin's Cinema and the New Sound of Europe Berna Gueneli, 2019-01-09 In Fatih Akin's Cinema and the New Sound of Europe Berna Gueneli explores the transnational works of acclaimed Turkish German filmmaker and auteur Fatih Akin The first minority director in Germany to receive numerous national and international awards Akin makes films that are informed by Europe's past provide cinematic imaginations about its present and future and engage with public discourses on minorities and migration in Europe through his treatment and representation of a diverse multiethnic and multilingual European citizenry Through detailed analyses of some of Akin's key works In July Head On and The Edge of Heaven among others Gueneli identifies Akin's unique stylistic use of multivalent sonic and visual components and multinational characters She argues that the soundscapes of Akin's films including music and multiple languages dialects and accents create an aesthetic of heterogeneity that envisions an expanded and integrated Europe and highlights the political nature of Akin's decisions regarding casting settings and audio At a time when belonging and identity in Europe is complicated by questions of race ethnicity religion and citizenship Gueneli demonstrates how Akin's aesthetics intersect with politics to reshape notions of Europe European cinema and cinematic history Roadtripping USA Let's Go Inc., 2009-03-31 Travel Guides

Screening the East Nick Hodgkin, 2011-05-01 Screening the East considers German filmmakers responses to unification In particular it traces the representation of the East German community in films made since 1989 and considers whether these narratives challenge or reinforce the notion of a separate East German identity The book identifies and analyses a large number of films from internationally successful box office hits to lesser known productions many of which are discussed here for the first time Providing an insight into the films historical and political context it considers related issues such as stereotyping racism regional particularism and the Germans confrontation with the past Latinidad and Film Dania Abreu-Torres, Rosana Blanco-Cano, Rita E. Urquijo-Ruiz, 2024-06-27 This book provides an analysis of Latinidad in Latin American and U S Latinx films by women and or LGBTQ directors from 1991 to 2016 Challenging traditional notions of gender roles family and national identities it discusses how film directors are broadening the canon and producing provocative work that challenges the boundaries of identity Utilizing a feminist and queer lens this book is intended to demonstrate the dynamic interactions between individual agency choices and freedom from the communities represented The book's organization in three parts reflects a common core of the Latin American and U S Latinx experiences unifying all these films in the hope of creating a better understanding of these geographical regions and their people Underground U.S.A. Xavier Mendik, Steven Jay Schneider, 2002 Whether defined by the carnivalesque excesses of Troma studios The Toxic Avenger the arthouse erotica of Radley Metzger and Doris Wishman or the narrative experimentations of Abel Ferrara Melvin Van Peebles Jack Smith or Harmony Korine underground cinema has achieved an important position within American film culture Often defined as cult and exploitation or alternative and independent the American underground retains separate strategies of production and exhibition from the cinematic mainstream while its sexual and cinematic representations differ from the traditionally conservative structures of the Hollywood system Underground U S A offers a fascinating overview of this area of maverick moviemaking by considering the links between the experimental and exploitative traditions of the American underground
