Ethics for the Very Young Erik Kenyon, Diane Terorde-Doyle, Sharon Carnahan, 2019-02-08 Can you be brave if you're afraid Why do we know better and do things anyway What makes a family Philosophers have wrestled with such questions for centuries They are also the stuff of playground debates Ethics for the Very Young uses the perplexities of young children's lives to spark philosophical dialogue Its lessons scaffold discussion through executive function games Telephone Red Light Green Light dialogic reading of picture books and Reggio Emilia's art based inquiry In the process children develop skills of dialogue and critical thinking through increased selective attention self control cognitive flexibility and perspective taking While the elements of this method are familiar they are here fused into an organic whole grounded in the history of philosophy and defended by current work in developmental psychology Building on Wartenberg's Big Ideas for Little Kids the present curriculum uses a series of 23 picture books to frame discussions of character bravery self control friendship the greater good respect and care Its goal is not to teach morals but to help children articulate and develop their own perspectives through dialogue with each other Each lesson presents teachers reflections on how this exploration of life's enduring questions transformed their school's culture

Big Steps for Little People Celia Foster, 2008 Drawing on the hard won wisdom gained in her own family life Celia offers a thoughtful account of life with adopted children and examines the issues that many adoptive families encounter including the development of children with attachment problems and how to tackle behavioural difficulties

But What Will People Say? Sahaj Kaur Kohli, MAEd, LGPC, 2024-05-07 This wonderful book is a compass a blueprint a mirror and a friend Kohli gives language to what many of us feel but can't yet articulate

Erika L Sanchez New York Times bestselling author of I am Not Your Perfect Mexican Daughter Loving culturally informed and holistic Kohli compassionately shares her own story and guides readers through the nuances and pain of assimilation individuation and mental health How I wish I had this book back when I was trying to figure it all out for myself Ramani Durvasula PhD author of It's Not You A deeply personal paradigm shifting book rethinking traditional therapy and self care creating much needed space for those left out of the narrative Writer and therapist Sahaj Kaur Kohli grew up knowing exactly what it means to straddle multiple cultures at once Like many children of immigrants she has often found herself plagued by questions Can I establish my own values and embrace where I come from Is prioritizing my mental health really rejecting my culture How do I set boundaries and care for myself when family and community mean everything Even after becoming a therapist herself she saw those same gaps in the mental health world leading her to wonder like so many children of immigrants what about us While conversations around mental health are becoming increasingly open our models remain largely Eurocentric and focused on individuality Sahaj has sought to challenge these long held models using deep personal reflection therapy community building and a whole lot of trial and error eventually navigating her own way to understanding and acceptance Here she shows us how to get there all the while reminding us that personal healing is inextricably connected to collective healing But What Will People Say elegantly weaves together personal narrative anecdotal analysis and comprehensive research Sahaj offers advice and tools for everything from navigating generational trauma guilt and boundaries to breaking down stigmas around therapy and celebrating cultural duality Democratizing and decolonizing the way we think about mental health and self help Sahaj's incredible work is nothing short of a revolution On Cassette,1991 Words on Cassette ,1997 Landers Film Reviews ,1985 The Executive Educator ,1993
