Robe Of God Reconciliation The Believers Church Essential:

The Robe of God Myron S. Augsburger, 2000 God moves first with grace and comes to us in Christ to reconcile us to himself He transforms us and accepts us into the covenant relationship God clothes us like the prodigal son in the robe of righteousness and gives us a place in his family The heart of the gospel is Jesus Christ through whom God came to us and became human yet sinless to restore true humanity in us In Christ we are a new creation reconciled with God and with each other as God's own people saved from being self centered Thus Augsburger says reconciliation surely has a social effect God's self disclosure reaches its full expression in Jesus Christ who is our Savior Lord Mentor Intercessor and Reconciler We become a new community of disciples living in solidarity with Jesus Salvation and ethics flow from our relation to Jesus we identify with Jesus to live by God's will The gospel makes love possible The church needs a new sense of the global and situational nature of God's reign sharing God's grace personally with all peoples to enable them to live with equity justice and mutuality This book holds together the evangelistic and social dimensions of reconciliation as the core of the gospel 264 Pages

The Scandalous Menu Daniel Medina, 2018-11-21 The Eucharist is the living parable of the Christian life and story It embodies every aspiration teaching hope sacrifice and selfless act of mercy and grace Christ left it as a memorial in word presence and deed It is love before us as Christ's very own real presence empowers and wills us to love others as he loved us first The Eucharist is the multisensory expression of Christ consciousness embodied in matter and in time Anyone who embraces the real presence of Christ in Spirit and in truth will experience a life transformed The experience of gathered worship prayer study spirituality and acts of justice and mercy will never again be the same Written for the Church universal The Scandalous Menu is a manifesto for the local church to embrace the supernatural power of the Eucharist and to reclaim the sacrament as the source of meaning and definition for life together as a people of God in Christ It is the call to reaffirm marriage vows with the bridegroom and for aspiring to be a Eucharistic community in the context and place God has called the local church to be serve and do This book is a call to a life of deep intimacy a higher experience of God and an invitation to unending transformation

The Social Significance of Reconciliation in Paul's Theology Corneliu Constantineanu, 2010-04-08 This is an assessment of the social dimension to reconciliation as displayed in Paul's Letter to the Romans Traditional exegetical scholarship has treated Paul's presentation of reconciliation as referring to reconciliation between people and God and has primarily focused use of the word katallage traditionally translated as atonement Constantineanu challenges this view and argues that Paul's understanding of the concept is more complex employing rich symbolism to describe reconciliation with God and between human beings forming together an inseparable reality The discussion is placed within Paul's overall religious social and political contexts showing that an analysis of the social dimension of reconciliation in his thought is both plausible and necessary Constantineanu offers an analysis of two major sections of Romans chapters 5-8 and 12-15 Special emphasis is placed on Paul's use of the story of Jesus for community formation for the shaping of identity values and community practices It is thus demonstrated that for Paul God's reconciling initiative shown in the crucifixion is not only the pronouncement of God's reconciling the world but also the ground and model for reconciliation among human beings It was formerly the Journal for the Study of the New Testament Supplement a book series that explores the many aspects of New Testament study including historical perspectives social scientific and literary theory and theological cultural and contextual approaches Reconcile John Paul Lederach, 2014-08-11

Oprean, 2019-05-31 Baptists in Romania have developed a practice of suspicion when it comes to religious dialogue especially with the Romanian Orthodox tradition due to a history that is characterized by oppression In this detailed study Dr Daniel Oprean paves the way for positive dialogue between the two traditions highlighting that much can be gained and learned by acknowledging similarities and differences in key aspects of theology Dr Oprean explores how existing theological resources can be used to enhance theological discourse between Baptist and Orthodox traditions in Romania through in depth analysis of the thought of British Baptist theologian Professor Paul Fiddes and Romanian Orthodox theologian Father Dumitru St niloae Oprean in particular looks at their understanding of trinitarian and human participation through perichoresis the Eucharist Christian spirituality and baptism and chrismation Presented as a conversation between the two traditions this study is a model for how theological and religious dialogue can facilitate reconciliation not just in the church but also in wider society Picking Up the Pieces Samuel Cyuma, 2012-05-22

In the last ten years of the 20th century the world was twice confronted with unbelievable news from Africa First there was the end of Apartheid in South Africa Who would have thought that such a change would be possible without bloodshed But the miracle happened due to responsible political and Church leaders and as a result of the unique processes organized through the Truth and Reconciliation Commission under the leadership of Archbishop Desmond Tutu The second unbelievable experience from Africa was of a rather different and awfully shocking nature the mass killings in Rwanda This event soon developed into a real genocide and created a wave of horror around the world There political and Church leaders had been unable to prevent this crime against humanity

Reconciliation Janez Juhant, Bojan Žalec, 2012 The book considers reconciliation from various points of view biblical foundations of reconciliation philosophical aspects Girardian and Bonhoefferian reflections on reconciliation intellectual and post totalitarian history psychotherapeutic approaches The authors consider reconciliation also in very concrete historical contexts Hungary Russia Slovenia Islam and Christianity Despite some disagreements their common message is clear human history and present times are covered with blood suffering of innocent victims and negative emotions Hence the only acceptable way is cultivation of the culture of reconciliation

Experiments in Love Emily Ralph Servant, 2021-03-12 Could it be that the stories we tell in our churches weaken our efforts to be congregations who take risks in mission for the sake of love In this thought provoking book Emily Ralph Servant suggests that the work of today s leaders is to explore new stories listen to new voices and open ourselves up to the Spirit s work of transformation Experiments in Love engages in a three way dialogue with feminist and liberation theologians the social and behavioral sciences and the Anabaptist tradition Out of this vibrant conversation emerges the story of a God who takes the risk of being radically present to a vulnerable world Because of God s courageous presence with us we can also take the risk of being vulnerably present to others as God invites us all to participate in God s community of life love and flourishing

Images of Salvation in the New Testament Brenda B. Colijn, 2010-10-05 The New Testament does not develop a systematic doctrine of salvation writes Brenda Colijn Instead it presents us with a variety of pictures taken from different perspectives Students of the New Testament and of theology will both find their vision broadened and their understanding deepened by this rich informative study As the author seeks to understand their implications for people of faith she uncovers how New Testament images provide the building blocks of the master story of redemption

The Holy Spirit and Christian Ethics in the Theology of Klaus Bockmuehl Annette M. Glaw, 2014-02-07 Klaus Bockmuehl 1931 1989 former Professor for Systematic Theology at Regent College Vancouver published outstanding theological ethical works The questions that Bockmuehl explored have not lost any relevance How do we know what God s will is in a particular situation Is Scripture sufficient for ethical decisions or should we listen to God Does God even speak today Is there a distinctive Christian ethic Bockmuehl s central contribution can be found in his emphasis on the seminal role the Holy Spirit plays within Christian ethics not only as the one who realizes the reign of God in the life of the individual but also as the one guiding the individual in a particular situation This book is the first in depth study of Bockmuehl introducing readers to his theology and ethics including a short biographical overview delineating and appraising how he understands the role of the Holy Spirit in Christian ethics It is not a book without criticism and its own creative contribution Annette Glaw concludes her fascinating study with a proposal for a relational concept of the Holy Spirit as the loving presence of God in Christian ethics

This volume offers deep ecumenical discussion of the relationship of the church to its peacemaking mission from the standpoints of history and the contemporary context. Contributors representing ten major faith traditions: Lois Y. Barrett, Alexander Brunett, Murray W. Dempster, Donald F. Durnbaugh, John H. Erickson, Eric W. Gritsch, Jeffrey Gros, Paul Meyendorff, Lauree Hersch Meyer, Thomas H. Olbricht, Thomas D. Paxson Jr., James F. Puglisi, John D. Rempel, Alan P. F. Sell, and Glen H. Stassen address this crucial topic from the perspective of their own churches and explore paths that could lead to the reconciliation of existing differences.
