Robert Minhinnick Selected Poems:

Selected Poems Robert Minhinnick, 1999 This text draws on six previous collections published between 1978 and 1994 The earlier poems are diverse ranging from descriptions of work in heavy industry to observations of wildlife around the writer's childhood home in Wales Later poems deal with travel in Brazil and the United States and also deal with schizophrenia The book celebrates the life and characters of a close knit community It then breaks away from the peopled landscape to consider history and culture from wider perspectives

The Beach in Anglophone Literatures and Cultures Ursula Kluwick, Virginia Richter, 2016-03-09 From early colonial encounters to the ecological disasters of the twenty first century the performativity of contact has been a crucial element in the political significance of the beach Conceptualising the beach as a creative trope and as a socio cultural site as well as an aesthetically productive topography this collection examines its multiplicity of meanings and functions as a natural environment engendering both desire and fear in the human imagination from the Victorian period to the present The contributors examine literature film and art in addition to moments of encounter and environmental crisis to highlight the beach as a social space inspiring particular codes of behaviour and specific discourses as a geographical frontier between land and water as an historical site of contact and conflict and as a vacationscape promising regeneration and withdrawal from everyday life The diversity of the beach is reflected in the geographical range with essays on locales and texts from Britain Ireland the Caribbean South Africa the United States Polynesia and New Zealand Focusing on the changed function of the beach as a result of processes of industrialisation and the rise of a modern leisure and health culture this interdisciplinary volume theorises the beach as a demarcater of the precarious boundary between land and the sea as well as between nature and culture A Poet's Guide to Britain Owen Sheers, 2009-10-29 Introduced and selected by the poet presenter Owen Sheers A Poet's Guide to Britain is a major poetry anthology that ties in with the BBC series of the same name Owen Sheers passionately believes that poems and particularly poems of place not only affect us as individuals but can have the power to mark and define a collective experience our identities our country our land He has chosen six powerful poems all personal favourites and all poems that have become part of the way we see our landscape The anthology follows a similar format to the BBC series itself while also offering paper chains of poems about the landscape and nature of Britain transcripts of contemporary poet interviews and a short introduction to each lead poem Ecocriticism and Geocriticism Robert T. Tally Jr., Christine M. Battista, Saville, 2016-04-29 Although treated as two distinct schools of thought ecocriticism and geocriticism have both placed emphasis on the lived environment whether through social or natural spaces For the first time this interdisciplinary collection of essays addresses the complementary and contested aspects of these approaches to literature culture and society Contemporary Poetry, 2011 The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-04-15 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century The Keys of Babylon Robert Minhinnick, 2011-11-04 In Albania Mexico China Iraq Israel Wales the US London people are on the move migration and immigration are key issues of the twentieth and twenty first century The Keys of Babylon is a collection of 15 linked stories by award winning poet and author Robert Minhinnick giving voices to migrants around the globe Both a fictional record of and an exploration into their lives the migrants and the people with whom they interact reflect a comprehensive mix of hope success failure fear indifference and passion And the stories of each of the main characters are drawn together in a final narrative which surveys their situation on a particular day Limestone Man Robert Minninnick,2015-06-14

Richard Parry is a painter who cannot paint a writer who doesn't write His obsession is Lulu an aboriginal child Returning from Australia to his south Wales hometown Parry finds it has become notorious for suicides of young people As he tries to connect past and present he is haunted by dreams of Australia and of his youth But is Parry all he seems Hollow Palaces

Kevin Gardner,John Greening,2021-09-01 The country house poem was born in the seventeenth century as a fruitful way of flattering potential patrons But the genre's popularity faded ironically just as country house society was emerging It was only when the power and influence of the landed classes had all but ebbed away that poets returned to the theme attracted perhaps by the buildings irresistible dereliction but equally by their often very personal histories This is the first complete anthology of modern country house poems and it shows just how far as Simon Jenkins points out in his Foreword poems can penetrate the souls of buildings Over 160 distinguished poets representing a diversity of class race gender and generation offer fascinating perspectives on stately exteriors and interiors gardens both wild and cultivated crumbling ruins and the extraordinary secrets they hide There are voices of all kinds whether it's Edith Sitwell recreating her childhood W B Yeats and Wendy Cope pondering Lissadell or Simon Armitage's labourer confronting the Lady who's got the lot We hear from noble landowners and loyal or rebellious servants and from many an inquisitive day tripper The book's dominant note is elegiac yet comedy satire even strains of Gothic can be heard among these potent reflections Hollow Palaces reminds us how poets can often be the most perceptive of guides to radical changes in society The book is illustrated by Rosie Greening
