describes the history society culture and events characteristic of all fifty states Unlike all other state folksong collections this one does not focus on songs collected in the particular states but rather on songs concerning the life and times of the people of that state The topics range from the major historical events such as the Boston Tea Party the attack on Fort Sumter and the California Gold Rush to regionally important events such as disasters and murders labor problems occupational songs ethnic conflicts Some of the songs will be widely recognized such as Casey Jones Marching Through Georgia or Sweet Betsy from Pike Others less familiar have not been reprinted since their original publication but deserve to be studied because of what they tell about the people of these United States their loves labors and losses and their responses to events The collection is organized by regions starting with New England and ending with the states bordering the Pacific Ocean and by states within each region For each state there are from four to fifteen songs presented with an average of 10 songs per state For each song a full text is reprinted followed by discussion of the song in its historical context References to available recordings and other versions are given Folksongs such as those discussed here are an important tool for historians and cultural historians because they sample experiences of the past at a different level from that of contemporary newspaper accounts and academic histories These songs in a sense are history writ small Includes Away Down East The Old Granite State Connecticut The Virginian Maid s Lament Carry Me Back to Old Virginny I m Going Back to North Carolina Shut up in Cold Creek Mine Ain t God Good to Iowa Dakota Land Dear Prairie Home Cheyenne Boys I m off for California and others

Roberta Dorothy Stuck, Nan Snow, 1997-07-01 Obscured in history by her internationally renowned son Sen J William Fulbright Roberta Waugh Fulbright was nonetheless an extraordinary person deserving of tribute Here finally and fittingly is her biography a sensitive portrait of a complex woman who was one Arkansas s dominant figures Traditional mother of six children gardener thinker and provocative conversationalist Roberta Fulbright became a sudden widow at age forty nine She eventually took charge of the inherited fragmented business holdings originally assembled by her husband Jay and molded them into a multi enterprise family firm As such she emerged as an influential newspaper publisher and columnist bank president savvy business owner and conscientious civic crusader Through her own self confidence and canny business sense she became a formidable competitor in Fayetteville s male dominated business establishment Her resolve was reflected in her signature column in the Northwest Arkansas Times As I See It So long as a woman does poorly and the lords of creation can say Oh it s nothing but a fool woman they are fairly content for they must every mother s son of them have a woman to do much of the work But let a woman do WELL and she is all but burned at the stake I will say for the benefit of those who may be interested I did not choose business as a career it was thrust upon me I did choose it in preference to going broke or dissipating my heritage and that of my children Intensely interested in politics Fulbright challenged a corrupt local political machine and later took on governor producing a chain of events leading to he4r son s election to Congress In her column she extolled the virtues of women s talents and she campaigned for an equal right for women in public life In doing so she was a moving force for acknowledgement of women in nontraditional roles long before feminism became a movement Stuck and Snow have produced a brisk lively story drawing from a genealogical records numerous interviews of family members business associates and friends and the almost two million words written by Fulbright in her column Renowned southern historian Willard B Gatewood Jr has said of this work I really appreciate the authors treatment of Roberta as a person inquisitive assertive benevolent etc They have captured superbly the family matriarch incessant thinker and talker the indulgent grandmother and gifted gardener This is truly a good read and represents a highly significant achievement

Queer Relajo David Tenorio,2025-08-28 In 2015 Mexico City declared itself a gay friendly city and followed up with a gay tourist guide and new laws permitting changes to gender markers on legal documents sanctioning same sex marriage and allowing joint adoption of children At the same time patterns of violence and discrimination against women trans and queer people have continued throughout the country In Queer Relajo David Tenorio argues that while Mexico City aims to bring visibility to queer sociality the benefits of legitimizing queer space remain unclear Combining readings of film digital media and performance with drag autoethnography Queer Relajo quite literally plays with how relajo or playfulness structures the spaces of queer nightlife in urban contexts by revealing how nighttime intimacy can minimize the paralyzing effects of violence and precarity in a neoliberal Mexico Considering the political implications of when a queer trans person is present at night Tenorio argues that queer feelings of play are not only essential to sexual liberation but also resist neoliberal commodification and heteronormative extraction
