

Birth to Five Matters

Non-Statutory Guidance to Help You Deliver the EYF5 Framework in Your Setting

Who created it and why?

- It has been developed by the Early Years (EY) Coalition.
- They joined together to create guidance that brought members' expertise and experience together.
- The aim was to create guidance that was accessible and valuable to the early years community, including practitioners with wide-ranging experience and training.

Who is in the Early Years

The EY Coalition is made up of 15 early years sector organisations. This includes the National Day Nurseries Association, Early Education and Early Years Alliance to name a few.

What are some ways I could use

- To support everyday practice, including the ongoing observation, assessment and planning cycle.
- As a starting point to develop an appropriate curriculum and high quality learning environment.
- To support planning for a specific activity, planning sessions and whole-day learning activities.
- When developing a new curriculum, or reviewing and developing an existing curriculum.
