Saibara: Volume 1, Text Elizabeth Markham, 1983-08-18 Saibara Drower's Songs is the title of a genre of measured Japanese court song traditionally believed to have been derived from the songs of pack horse drivers bringing tribute from the provinces to the Heian capital and known to have formed part of the official court repertory at least since AD 859 From literature of the Heian period 782-1184 it is evident that these songs enjoyed great popularity at court as entertainment music practised by noble amateurs Six songs are still performed today albeit vastly modified As well as being of value to musicologists these volumes will interest readers concerned with early Japanese literature and paleography Saibara Elizabeth J. F. Wolpert, 1981 This second fascicle includes two further suites from the Ichikotsu ch mode key group namely Toraden which probably originated in the early eighth century and Shunn den

a ballet suite believed to have its source in a late seventh century piece in imitation of Cettia diphone cantans a bush warbler with a nightingale like song
