Sailing Home Tom Basham, Lissa Calvert, 2012-08 My name is Eli Pruparrow and I'm sailing down the Chesapeake Bay with my friend Micha Kovnik In case you don't know the Chesapeake Bay is one of the biggest bays in the world and lies smack between Virginia and Maryland It's full of small fishing villages islands and big rivers like the Potomac James and Rappahannock It's really beautiful but a sailor in the bay has to be careful there are lots of hazards here and storms come up quick I might as well tell you how we got here since it's pretty hard to believe how we ended up in a small boat in the middle of the Chesapeake We're escapees from one of the worst foster homes ever I can say this because I'm kind of an expert on foster homes I've been in a dozen so far

Out at Sea Charles Wheeler Denison, 1867 Robert Lowell Steven Axelrod, Helen Deese, 1986 Robert Lowell is one of the most widely recognised and influential poets of the second half of this century Yet his career is problematical and raises many questions about direction and quality particularly in light of his repeated reorientation of thematic concern and poetic technique Many previous studies of the poet have accounted for these radical differences in Lowell's work by examining the poet's private life but this collection of essays attempts to reassess Lowell's poetry and to restimulate critical thinking about it by focusing on his texts to raise new questions and discussions about the work The twelve essays in this volume by many of the most distinguished scholars in the field offer a chronological review of Robert Lowell's career as a poet The book includes pieces on major works such as Lord Weary's Castle Life Studies For the Union Dead Skunk Hour Notebook the sonnets of 1969-73 as well as four essays devoted to Lowell's last complete and often neglected work Day by Day Employing a variety of methodologies the essays arrive at innovative and often controversial interpretations of Lowell's poems

Want a Filipino Man were all published and widely promoted by Tin Pan Alley as well as performed on stage and listened to on records and piano rolls across America The lyrics often illustrate popular American attitudes from shrilly patriotic numbers about the Battle of Manila Bay and the later Fall of Bataan and Corregidor to wistful romantic and even charming reminiscences of happy days spent in old Manila to racially charged pieces rife with deprecating stereotypes of Filipinos The book reprints a number of hard to find song lyrics making them available to readers for the first time in more than a century It also provides copyright registration numbers and dates of registration for many published and unpublished songs Finally more than 700 notes on particular songs and numerous links provide direct access to bibliographic records or digital copies of sheet music in libraries and collections Exhaustive in scope Tin Pan Alley and the Philippines is an invaluable resource for scholars and students of American history Pacific studies popular culture and ethnomusicology The Past in Aeschylus and Sophocles Poulheria Kyriakou,2011-07-28 The book studies the past of the characters in Aeschylus and Sophocles a neglected but crucial topic The characters beliefs values and emotions bear on their view of the past This view reinforces their beliefs and their conception of themselves and others as agents of free will and members of a family and or community The study reveals that although the characters idea of the past is fixed the impact of the past is not The characters consider review and construct narratives of it as they seek to mould a future they perceive as morally just for themselves and others
