

12 Types of Salads Around the World

Good salads from across the globe warrant attention: they're more than a diet food made of iceberg lettuce and tomatoes. Let these twelve inspire you to toss your way through the summer heat.

The most famous salads from around the world

1. Peruvian solterito: From the region of Arequipa, Peru, this salad (the name of which translates as "little single man") consists of potatoes, coriander, onion, rocoto chili pepper, fava beans, corn and quesillo cheese. The ingredients are uniformly diced and bound in olive oil.

2. Californian Cobb salad: The famous Hollywood hangout, the Brown Derby, served a salad to its owner, Robert Howard Cobb, who hadn't eaten for hours. It was past midnight and he wanted something filling but not too heavy, so he threw together various ingredients left in the kitchen: grilled chicken, avocado, fried bacon, cheese, hardboiled eggs. Voilà, the Cobb salad was born.
