Salisbury The Changing City:

Salisbury Bruce Purvis, 2003-01-01 A VIVID INSIGHT into the dramatic developments that have taken place in the town's recent past this book recalls houses and buildings shops business and pubs that have vanished or been altered almost beyond recognition It takes the reader on a tour that compares current streetscapes with photographs and other illustrations made from the same viewpoints in the past Many come from local archive sources and provide an unrivalled record of the story of the city The resulting contrast offers an illuminating insight into Salisbury's evolution over the last 200 years Bruce Purvis traces the overlapping phases of Salisbury's distinctive history from medieval new town to a centre of industry commerce and transport to a centre for tourism and the service economy in the present day Fascinating reading and reference for everyone who is interested in Salisbury's rich surprising history Salisbury Civic History Salisbury City Charter Trustees, Bill Toop, 1975

Manhattan Projects Samuel Zipp, 2010-05-24 Moving beyond the usual good versus evil story that pits master planner Robert Moses against the plucky neighborhood advocate Jane Jacobs Samuel Zipp sheds new light on the rise and fall of New York's urban renewal in the decades after World War II Focusing on four iconic Manhattan projects the United Nations building Stuyvesant Town Lincoln Center and the great swaths of public housing in East Harlem Zipp unearths a host of forgotten stories and characters that flesh out the conventional history of urban renewal He shows how boosters hoped to make Manhattan the capital of modernity and a symbol of American power but even as the builders executed their plans a chorus of critics revealed the dark side of those Cold War visions attacking urban renewal for perpetuating deindustrialization racial segregation and class division for uprooting thousands and for implanting a new alienating cityscape Cold War era urban renewal was not merely a failed planning ideal Zipp concludes but also a crucial phase in the transformation of New York into both a world city and one mired in urban crisis Tales of Two Cities:

Settlement and Suburb in Old Sarum and Salisbury Hadrian Cook, Alex Langlands, 2024-07-04 Telling the story of Old Sarum and Salisbury from the mid 10th century to the start of the 20th this book brings together the most up to date thinking on the archaeological evidence and through analysis of the rich documentary record provides a fresh take on the story of this most illustrious cathedral city in the heart of southern England Changes Among Operating Banks and Branches Federal

Deposit Insurance Corporation, 1982 Political Problems and Personalities in Contemporary Maryland Theodore F. Sheckels, Carl T. Hyden, 2022-11-08 Political Problems and Personalities in Contemporary Maryland provides a comprehensive rhetorical analysis of contemporary politics and political communication in Maryland at both the state and local levels Theodore F Sheckels and Carl Hyden approach rhetoric in a broader sense arguing that actions by political players including decisions on housing policy urban redevelopment policy and transportation policy are not in a separate category from their messages In many cases they argue actions are messages often with important material consequences Rather than focusing solely on previous or upcoming elections as political communication has traditionally been examined

Sheckels and Hyden give considerable space to non election topics responding to current shifts in political communication scholarship and encouraging others to examine political communication at the local and state levels elsewhere in the United States Scholars of communication political science rhetoric and history will find this book of particular interest Living Opposite to the Hospital of St John: Excavations in Medieval Northampton 2014 Jim Brown, 2021-06-10 This volume presents the results of archaeological investigations undertaken at a building site in Northampton in 2014 The location was of interest as it lay opposite the former medieval hospital of St John which influenced the development of this area of the town

Continuity and Change Patricia M. O'Connor, Fidelma McCorry, 2025-04-15 Bringing together a multidisciplinary team of authors this book relays the untold story of postwar migration between Ireland and Australia Spanning the period 1945-2024 it explores the experiences of migrants from the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland and provides insights into the multiple reasons these migrants came to Australia factors which prompted permanency or return and the extent of continuity and change between recent arrivals and their historical predecessors Contemporary flows are examined through the lens of social economic policy and technological changes occurring at the time in Ireland Australia and globally Decades of economic boom and bust in Ireland including the growth and demise of the Celtic Tiger the impact of government investment in education in the Republic and the Troubles in Northern Ireland occurred alongside marked changes in Australia's immigration policy During this time an increased affordability of international travel and communication brought new dynamics to the tyranny of distance that characterised historical flows How contemporary migrants from Ireland navigated these changes in terms of identity and belonging homesickness and transnationalism are the key themes which are explored The role of Ireland's Government in relation to its migrant community in Australia and the impact of COVID 19 are also considered This book not only fills a gap in Ireland's diaspora research but also contributes to migration studies more broadly particularly the experiences of invisible immigrants
