Townsend, 2016-06-28 A stunning survey of the indigenous art architecture and spiritual beliefs of the Americas from the Precolumbian era to the 20th century This landmark publication catalogues the Art Institute of Chicago's outstanding collection of Indian art of the Americas one of the foremost of its kind in the United States Showcasing a host of previously unpublished objects dating from the Precolumbian era to the 20th century the book marks the first time these holdings have been comprehensively documented Richard Townsend and Elizabeth Pope weave an overarching narrative that ranges from the Midwestern United States to the Yucatán Peninsula to the heart of South America While exploring artists' myriad economic historical linguistic and social backgrounds the authors demonstrate that they shared both a deep underlying cosmological view and the desire to secure their communities' prosperity by affirming connections to the sacred forces of the natural world The critical essays focus on topics that bridge traditions across North Central and South America including materials methods of manufacture the diversity of stylistic features and the iconography and functions of various objects Gorgeously illustrated in color with more than 500 vibrant images this handsome catalogue serves as the definitive survey of an unparalleled collection Ancient Sculpture of Western Mexico Ithaca College. Museum of Art, 1970 Heritage of Power Kristi Butterwick, 2004 Diverse environments from low lying marshlands to naturally terraced hillsides to rugged mountains of pine and oak forest afforded many opportunities for well being to the inhabitants of what are now the modern Mexican states of Colima Jalisco and Nayarit In the seven hundred year period between 300 B C and A D 400 local hierarchies flourished power was concentrated in increasingly fewer hands and the wealthier members of the communities established family lineages that remained intact for many generations The compelling importance of place and family is reflected in the size locations and contents of the major tombs of that period often situated near or under dwellings these were deeply buried shaft and chamber tombs One set of conjoined tombs excavated in 1993 at the site of Huitzilapa in the Magdalena basin of northern Jalisco held six personages five of whom were close family relatives Well over one hundred ceramic works accompanied the interred together with conch shell trumpets tens of thousands of shell beads and objects of jade obsidian and quartz testifying to the family's wealth. Many of the ceramic objects were vessels and bowls for food and drink but there were large three dimensional human figures as well among them one depicting a ballplayer. The focus of Heritage of Power: Ancient Sculpture from West Mexico. The Andrall E. Pearson Family Collection consists of over forty of these artistically appealing figures which represent all three of the major styles and sub styles that make up the body of West Mexican ceramic sculpture named for the states of Colima Jalisco and Nayarit. Included are an introductory illustrated essay catalogue entries that discuss each of the works in detail all of them shown in color and often in multiple views and a selected bibliography. They explore the technology of artifact production the body's place in social structures and rituals the language of the body as expressed in postures and gestures hybrid and transformative combinations of human and animal bodies bodily representations of social categories body modification and the significance of portable and fixed representations. Anthropomorphic Imagery in the Mesoamerican Highlands provides a wide range of insights into Mesoamerican concepts of personhood and identity the constitution of the human body and human relationships with gods and ancestors.
