Seafarers Rights:

Seafarers' Rights in the Globalized Maritime Industry Desislava Nikolaeva Dimitrova, Roger Blanpain, 2010-01-01 The enormous technological financial and structural changes of recent decades have revolutionized the international shipping industry bringing about lower freight rates shorter time in port and fast turnarounds reduction in crew size employment of cheap labour from developing countries avoidance of national regulations and taxes and diminished living and working standards on board Exploitation of seafarers has always existed but now it has become more common and frequent Shipowners can cut costs in various ways but the most profitable and easiest to achieve are those at the expense of labour costs in particular costs for maintaining proper living conditions on board the ship This bulletin examines in detail the structure of the shipping industry focusing on problems concerning the working and living conditions of seafarers on board merchant ships serving the global sea transport system Exploring all levels of maritime policymaking on a global and European level the author analyses seafarers rights in the light of international enforcement mechanisms and particularly in the light of the recent ILO Maritime Labour Convention He also considers relevant case law as well as advisory opinions and policy statements from various pertinent agencies especially in the EU context Among the issues raised and discussed in depth in relation to their effect on seafarers labour standards are the following ship manning companies illicit crewing agencies flags of convenience hours of work and rest wages occupational health and safety accommodation food water and catering recreational facilities filing of grievance and port controls The author shows that expansion and progress of the maritime industry notwithstanding there is a great need for effective enforcement mechanisms in this area This is the first detailed analysis to connect the working and living conditions of seafarers with international supranational and national maritime legislation A giant step towards establishing a global monitoring system to enforce international maritime conventions regarding seafarers labour standards it is sure to make an important contribution to both international labour and employment law and the law of the sea

Maritime Work Law Fundamentals: Responsible Shipowners, Reliable Seafarers Iliana

Christodoulou-Varotsi, Dmitry A. Pentsov, 2007-10-31 The importance of international maritime labour law both as a component of international maritime law and in socio political and economic terms has been recognised by the IMO International Maritime Law Institute for a number of years Indeed the Institute has annually organised a course on maritime labour law with the participation of inter alia the International Maritime Organization the International Labour Organization the International Transport Workers Federation and the German Shipowners Association It was therefore a great pleasure when the authors invited me to introduce their forthcoming monograph on Maritime Work Law Fundamentals Responsible Shipowners Reliable Seafarers As the title suggests a fundamental challenge of this branch of international maritime law is to achieve a balance between the interests of the two main stakeholders Institutionally the effort to achieve this balance dates back a number of decades with its genesis mainly found in the work of the International Labour Organization It has to be said that whilst this effort achieved great progress it has led to a haphazard plethora of legal instruments Seafarers' Security Measures Under the MLC 2006 Sandra Lielbarde, 2024-07-19 The book is intended to be about the Maritime Labour Convention 2006 MLC 2006 about seafarers security measures available before MLC 2006 and after its adoption The following security measures will be addressed in the book mandatory financial security established by the MLC 2006 flag State responsibility labour supplying responsibility port State control and a ship arrest The responsibility of the shipowner in respect of the seafarers engaged in work on his ship will be discussed in analysis of nowadays seafarers recruitment process and a legal structure of shipping companies Content will include the analysis of international UNCLOS ILO and IMO conventions UNCCRO s and Vienna Convention on Consular Relations 1963 and national law Denmark Estonia Finland Germany Latvia Norway The Philippines and The UK and relevant legal documents agreements guidelines and court cases Under the MLC 2006 the shipowner has an obligation to ensure appropriate working conditions on board a ship due payment of wages repatriation of seafarers and to fulfil other obligations in accordance with international and national law and the seafarer s employment agreement Even nowadays there are still shipowners who do not take care of the people who work on their ships the crew onboard is left without food and drinking water has not been paid for their work and cannot go back home because the shipowner does not pay for their repatriation Current COVID 19 pandemic turned out to be a serious challenge to the MLC 2006 operation in practice The MLC issues and seafarers employment and social rights continue to be on the agenda of shipping industry It is expected that on 24 December 2024 the amendments of 2022 to the Code of the MLC 2006 will come into force The Guidelines for port State and flag State authorities on how to deal with seafarer abandonment cases were adopted on First Meeting of the Joint ILO IMO Tripartite Working Group to identify and address seafarers issues and the human element held on 13 15 December 2022 The book aims to promote uniformity in implementation of the MLC 2006 by this increasing effectiveness of the MLC 2006 Book will bring a new knowledge in the area of maritime labour law
