of minorities Captured by History John Toland,2017-10-03 Captured by History is an autobiography like none other for few historians have interviewed as many men and women who helped shape the most momentous events of our century than John Toland Here for the first time Toland reveals how he found these key players and how he persuaded them to talk to him From disgraced Japanese generals to the German doctor who nearly succeeded in assassinating Hitler Toland s sources are remarkable for what they reveal about their subjects along with the secrets and stories they would tell no one else Toland s unorthodox approach to history came from his early desire to be a playwright Even before graduating from Williams College during the depths of the Depression Toland spent his summers hitchhiking and riding the rails as a hobo He lived and worked with other bindle stiffs learning their lingo and ways He served five short jail sentences for riding freights and trespassing His experiences and the characters he met encouraged Toland to write plays and early novels unsuccessfully until 1957 when he published his first book Ships in the Sky His work in the next four decades was nothing short of extraordinary for Toland found that he saw history as a play with narrative structure and drama not as a dry series of dates and names The result was a series of landmark works such as Infamy The Rising Sun which won him the Pulitzer Prize for nonfiction in 1970 and reflected his ability with the help of his Japanese wife to open doors normally closed to Westerners in Japan In Mortal Combat The Last 100 Days and his best selling biography of Adolf Hitler Captured by History is not only the summation of a lifetime of groundbreaking works but the story of a man who through his historical investigations became a witness to many of the most catastrophic events of the twentieth century A self effacing man in person Toland nonetheless comes across as having had a life as fascinating as the lives of the many historical figures he has interviewed Written by one of our last witnesses to the terrible and deracinating conflicts that split the world asunder at mid century Captured by History is an astonishing personal story of a hugely inquisitive man who became a historian not by accident or design but by fate a man who succeeded in chronicling the most tumultuous events of our century Masterful Stories John V Pavlik,2017-02-24 The early eras of radio storytelling have entered and continue to enter the public domain in large quantities offering unprecedented access to the Golden Age of Radio Author and Professor John Pavlik mines the best this age of radio has to offer in Masterful Stories an examination of the masterpieces of audio storytelling This book provides a chronological history of the best of the best from radio s Golden Age outlining a core set of principles and techniques that made these radio plays enduring examples of storytelling It suggests that by using these techniques stories can engage audiences emotionally and intellectually Grounded in a historical and theoretical understanding of radio drama this volume illuminates the foundational works that proceeded popular modern shows such as Radiolab The Moth and Serial Masterful Stories will be a powerful resource in both media history courses and courses teaching audio storytelling for modern radio and other audio formats such as podcasting It will appeal to audio fans looking to learn about and understand the early days of radio drama

MultiCultural Review ,2007 Asian and Asian American Women in Theology and Religion Kwok Pui-lan,2020-02-25

This book presents personal narratives and collective ethnography of the emergence and development of Asian and Asian American women's scholarship in theology and religious studies. It demonstrates how the authors' religious scholarship is based on an embodied epistemology influenced by their social locations. Contributors reflect on their understanding of their identity and how this changed over time, the contribution of Asian and Asian American women to the scholarship work that they do, and their hopes for the future of their fields of study. The volume is multireligious and intergenerational and is divided into four parts: identities and intellectual journeys, expanding knowledge, integrating knowledge and practice, and dialogue across generations.
